

Minesh V. Tyler

August 3, 1988 - August 27, 2016

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever. Psalm 23:6 (KJV)

Minesh Vincent Tyler, son of Latinas Dawn Coley and Kevin Vincent Tyler, Sr., was born August 3, 1988 in Baltimore, Maryland. Minesh made his earthly transition to eternal rest with the Lord on Saturday, August 27, 2016. Manny was preceded in death by his maternal grandmother, Beatrice Tyler. Manny knew and loved the Lord; he gave his life to Christ at an early age. While he did not belong to a church, Manny frequented The City Temple of Baltimore (Baptist) Church where many of his family members attend. You could look up on any given Sunday and Manny would be standing beside you with his captivating smile and saying, "I just had to come to church today". Manny, as he was affectionately called by family and friends, received his formal education through the Baltimore City Public School System. Manny worked several jobs during his brief career, however, the job he most prided himself in was that of a painter; painting housing complexes and private homes.

Manny loved his family and friends. He especially adored his daughter, My'nesha, and regretted not being able to spend more time with her. Manny had a very loving relationship with his parents. He served as a role model for his younger brother and cousins. He also looked out for his nieces and nephews.

He was a firm believer in “do as I say, not what I do”. In every since of the term,

Manny was a “free spirit”. He loved to be outdoors. He spent his pastime fixing bikes and cars; he was known throughout the neighborhood as the go to man when you needed something repaired. He loved all kinds of animals, and was often chastised by his mother for bringing so many into their home. We felt like we had our own “Dr. Dolittle”.

Manny was a very compassionate young man. There were times when he would bring friends home who did not have a place to stay. There was one occasion when someone was evicted from their home, and Manny wanted to bring them home with him. He would never end a telephone call without saying ‘I love you’.

Minesh leaves to cherish special memories: his daughter, My’nesha Taraji; his devoted parents, Dawn Coley and Kevin Tyler, Sr.; two brothers, Kevin Tyler, Jr. and Brandon Brown; sister, Onyeka; maternal grandparents, Virginia Lee and Robert Arnold Coley, Sr.; paternal grandfather, Grover W. Hudson; loving surrogate grandfather, Jesse Randle; aunt, Tracy Coley (Norman); three uncles, Antonio Coley (Rhonda), Robert Coley, Jr. (Belinda) and Daryl Jonathan Tyler (Cheryl); a special friend, Phyllissa Johnson; and a host of other relatives, friends, and extended family members.

“ My brother I received this news late and it shocked me and I don't even want to believe that God requested you now. But it's true. People do not no that you were my bunk buddy at the howard co det ctr. It is what it is. Man all the days we joked and laughed about them taking our money out of our account then charging us to stay in a 6 by 12. The many days we made our own hook ups and you were the chef. What a nasty meal lol. And then we worked together at mobern electric and we joked and laughed but we got the job done correctly. Man I'm gonna miss that smile and laugh and what about the big white caddy they let you use for work. You was rolling then homey. And you always mentioned you girl and family you did it right. None of us are perfect that's why we live . Is to learn . I love you black and may the heavens rejoice. With you there I'll see you again. and may the power of God bless your family.
