

Minnie Bell Richburg

July 1, 1926 - April 29, 2009

Our beloved Minnie B. Richburg was peacefully called to Glory on Wednesday, April 29, 2009. She was born on July 1, 1926 in Sumter, South Carolina to the late Robert and Hester Dingle. Minnie married the late Willie M. Richburg on December 27, 1943. From that union, they were blessed with seven children. Two sons, Samuel and Arnold, preceded her in death. At an early age, Minnie dedicated her life to Christ. She was a faithful and active member of The Mount Moriah Baptist Church and The Queen Esther Women's Social Organization. She was a devout Christian who read her Bible nightly. Her favorite book in the Bible was The Book of Ruth, which shows a community that did what was right in God's eyes. This is how Minnie tried to live her life. Minnie was a dedicated employee of Union Memorial Hospital for 25 years. Minnie's special talents included growing houseplants, a talent that she gave to her children. She enjoyed her retirement years at Owen Browne Senior Center where she made many friends. Minnie also received excellent care from Tim and Elva Belton and Hallie Dixon during her senior years. Minnie was a dedicated and loving wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. She leaves a loving family to cherish her precious memory. Willie Richburg, Catherine Brown, Robert Richburg, Janice Bond and Wanda Williams; two sons-in-law, Johnny Brown and Augustus Bond; six grandchildren, Camille LeCato, Candice Brown, Caitlin Brown, Taleah Whorley-Florence, Ryan Whoarley and Daryl Williams, Jr.; four great-grandchildren, Dwayne Jackson, Jasoune Simpson, Kaprice Simpson and Arizon Florence. Also surviving are four sisters, Theola Harris (Jerry), Rosetta Nelson (James), Helen Hawkins and Willene Dingle; two brothers, John Albert and Joseph Dingle (siblings Elaise Dingle, James Dingle, Robert Dingle, Hurmen Charles and Leroy Dingle preceded). Minnie also leaves a host of nieces, nephew, cousins and friends to cherish her memory.

“ May you be comforted by the mercies of our loving heavenly father. He promises, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."Isiah 66:13 God never desired death for any of us. By their disobedience Adam and Eve introduced death to the human family. But God has the rememdy for death. At 1st Cor 15:22 he promises, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive. Through a ressurection, many will come back to life. Acts 24:15 promises, "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a ressurection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Indeed the dead will hear the voice of Jesus, and they will come out of the memorial tombs. John 5:28,29. May you find much comfort and strength in the hope of the ressurection.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to send my condolence to the Richburg's. Lossing a very dear love one breaks the circle of life for all Ms. Minnie has a very pleasant smile on her face of peace and happiness. In the future we will be able to enjoy that kind of look forever because dying will be a thing of the Past, Isa.25:8. I am so looking forward to that happening as Jesus siad at John 5 :28. Old age and sickness and pain and sorrow and tears will be gone because our heavenly father is making all things New, Rev.21:3-5. I have loss a very dear mother recently too and know the feeling however I am looking forward to the resurrection of the dead, John 5:28. Our heavenly faher knows how you all are fairing and cares, 1 Peter 5:7. May the almost 83 years of sharing and treasure cherish memories with Ms. Minnie help on the journey of life.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##
