“ Although I do not know the family of Ms. Jones, I still send my deepest regards. When a loved one dies some tend to feel discomfort towards the future. However, comfort can be found in the Scriptures, particularly one at Revelation 21:4, which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore, the former things has passed away." One will do well to take to heart this Scripture set out for everyone to recieve encouragement by. Again, I send my condolences.##imported-begin##Brittany##imported-end##

“ Please accept my belated condolences for your loss. The Bible rightly calls death our enemy, that same verse promises that death will be done away with. (First Corinthians 15:26) What hope is there for our dead loved ones? Acts 24:15 assures us- "There is going to be a resurrection." May you find much comfort and strength from these divinely inspired promises.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
