“ Rarely does one travel through life showered with as much love and affection that Miss Minnie experienced and shared. I was blessed to know her for more than sixty years ,starting during my freshman year at Hopkins.and continuing for the thirty years we shared together in Garland Hall. You could not forget her welcoming smiile, her joy for life and her genuine concern about your well being. I was fortunate to share so many years with Miss.Minnie and to be one of those in her circle of life. I will cherish all the years spent with her and will miss her. She was one special lady!!!!

“ Hi Brenda,
Rita & me are sorry for your loss of Minnie. You had a long time with your mom to get the wisdom she shared with all her friends and co workers at Hopkins for all the years she worked there. Rita remembers taking the notes at the Bible studies each week at lunch time.
Minnie is with the LORD at a better place and free of her suffering here on earth.
We will try to get to the viewing tomorrow if Rita is up to it.

“ I send much encouragement and sympathy to the Hargrow family. Such a painful loss for your family, because she will be missed greatly. May the holy scriptures bring soothing words to your hearts as you mourn her passing. One day you have the hope of seeing her again. John 6:40.
