

Minnie L. Jackson

May 1, 1926 - December 23, 2012

MINNIE L. JACKSON, daughter of the late John Cureton and Mattie Cureton, was born on May 1, 1926 in Mecklenburg County, North Carolina. She departed this life December 23, 2012 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education in North Carolina. Minnie was a seamstress for many years. She moved to Baltimore, Maryland in 1961 and became employed at London Fog for several years. She became one of Jehovah's Witnesses and was baptized on March 20, 1972 and pioneered from April, 1991 until August, 2006 after she became ill.

She was married to the late Thomas Grier, and from this union five children were born: Carolyn, Edna, Jimmie, Charles and Randolph. She married Richard Jackson on June 4, 1958, and from this union Robin Jackson was born. She was preceded in death by Jimmie, Randolph and Robin.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her brother, David Cureton; three children, Carolyn of California, Edna and Charles; thirteen grandchildren, a host of great-grandchildren, many nieces and nephews, a large number of spiritual brothers and sisters, and many friends.

She will be truly missed.
