

Minnie Lee Jones

February 15, 1931 - November 23, 2006

Minnie Lee Jones, daughter of the late David and Maggie Hines, was born on February 15, 1931 in Halifax County, North Carolina. She departed this life on November 23, 2006 at Mercy Medical Center after a short stay. She was educated in the Halifax County Public School System. Minnie married the late Lee Jones in June, 1948 and from this union one son, Benjamin was born. Minnie and her family moved to Baltimore, Maryland, Minnie was gainfully employed at Morgan State College as a housekeeper for many years before retiring. She later returned to the workforce as a cook at Steve's Restaurant for several years. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother and sister. She liked spending time with her family and friends. She enjoyed cooking and watching the soap operas. At one time, you could not call her on the telephone during the hours between noon and four. She was also a collector of pictures. The entire wall of her home was filled with pictures of family and friends. Minnie leaves to cherish loving memories: one son, Benjamin; one daughter-in-law, Penny; a special adopted daughter, Peaches; six grandchildren, Anthony, Michael, Malcolm, Ashley, Angela, and Rodney; four great-grandchildren, Shakia, Keyonna, Davion and Janiyha; five sisters, Nina (Carl Page Sr.), Martha (James Leggette), Edna all of Baltimore, Maryland, Shirley (Calvin Colfield) of Scotland Neck, North Carolina and Annie (Robert Shelton) of Clinton, Maryland; two brothers, George Hines of Washington, D.C. and Robert (Annie) of Scotland Neck, North Carolina. She was preceded in death by four brothers, Rudolph, Bennie, David and James; one sister, Maggie James; two sisters-in-law, Edna Hines, and Edna Hines both of Washington, D.C.; one godchild, Brenda; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Grandma, I just so happen to be looking for folks from NC for Black History Month and happen to come across your obituary. I miss you oh so much. It's funny how you have people at your service to celebrate your life, but then they soon forget. well, not me. I love you Minne Lee Jones.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
