

Minnie Louise White

February 1, 1937 - October 2, 2011

Minnie Louise White was born in Pitt County Tarboro, North Carolina on February 1, 1937 to the late Anna Mercer and James Gorhames.

She received her education in the public school system of Pinetop, North Carolina where she graduated from George Washington Carver Senior High School. After relocating to Baltimore, Minnie furthered her education by attending Baltimore City Community College and graduated with a degree in social work.

Minnie worked for the Maryland Department of Social services and City Hospital. She later became employed as a Domicility Care Provider, a position she held for over thirty years.

Minnie was a member of Southern Baptist Church for many years. When she was unable to attend services you could always find her enjoying Christian radio and television broadcasts. She was also a member of The Grand Hiram Lodge, Order of the Eastern Star- Carey Atkinson Chapter #29.

Louise or “Granny” as she was affectionately called by family and friends loved people and had a passion for helping others. Her passion in life was taking care of her loved ones and those who needed a helping hand. Her door was always open to those in need. “Granny” had a never ending love for telephone conversation. And if her's was broken, you had better find a new one (or she might just take yours).

She was preceded in death by grandson Troy Langley and great -great niece Shaziya Bennett.

She leaves to celebrate her memory: children, Annie Miales, Barbara Watson and Jenay Rhoades; sisters, Mattie Marie (Robert), Dorothy and Stacey (Wesley); brothers, James Earl (Mable), James Jr. and Phil Anthony (Faye); grandchildren, Quante Christian, Nekia Miales, Stenika Jeffries, Shawnise Jeffries and Zelbra Everette; great-grandchildren, Rikia Williams and Azzuren Williams; godchildren, Pete Corprew, Lila Whitaker and Diane Black; special friends, Alveda Richardson, Lucy Smith, Janice Everette and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathies in the loss of your dear loved one. How comforting in knowing Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect our loved ones. Jesus himself said: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." John 5:28,29
