

Miraland L. Logan

September 19, 1942 - July 12, 2007

Miraland L. Logan, son of the late Kennie R. and Elizabeth Logan, was born on September 19, 1942 in Elcorn, Virginia. He departed this life on July 23, 2007 after a brief illness. He attended the Baltimore City Public Schools after his family had moved from Elcron, Virginia. Mr. Miraland Logan was a culinary professional and became a head-baker at Rollin Pin Bakery, where he worked for several years. In 1985, Miraland and Diana Logan were united in a holy matrimony. The union was blessed with one son. Later, he was called to the ministry and was ordained Elder at Whosoever Will Church in Washington, Dc. He was a hard worker and would be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He leaves to mourn his faithful wife, Evangelist Diana Logan, and three children, Marlene, Carlos, Jonathan Logan; and one stepson, Amos Malone, grand and great-grand children, and one goddaughter, Evangelist Michelle Oke of Charles County, Md. His brother, James Logan, preceded him in death. One living brother, Wavely Logan of Decatur, Ga, will remember him. And three sisters, Mattie Gibson of Mitchelville, Md., Barbara Countee and Evelyn Gilmore of Baltimore, Md.; aunts, uncles and a host of nieces and nephews and other relatives and friends.
