

Miranda Mack

January 8, 1985 - October 15, 2023

God planted a seed on January 8, 1985, that would grow into a beautiful flower in which he handpicked on October 15, 2023 to place in his garden of eternal life.

Miranda Mack was born to Debra Ann Mack & David Miranda Mack Baltimore Maryland. Miranda was a firm believer in loving the Lord, she was introduced to Christ at an early age. Miranda grew up attending church with her grandmother on Sunday's. As a child Miranda could always be found playing with her friend Yolanda. They would begin and end each day together.

Miranda attended Baltimore City Public Schools, graduating from Edmondson Westside High School in 2003, She furthered her education at Coppin State University. She graduated with her bachelor's degree in management science in 2008. She became a Dental Hygienist Assistant in 2010. Miranda loved working with people, especially children. Her soft voice and calm demeanor would soothe the smaller patients, helping them to get through their procedures without incident.

Miranda gave birth to her daughter Courtney White on October 22, 2009. Courtney was the absolute center of her mother's world. They would spend a lot of time together, taking trips. journaling, watching movies, and most of all having girl time! Everything Miranda did in life revolved around Courtney. They shared such a beautiful bond. Miranda continued her family tradition of celebrating Holidays with her daughter. Making every Milestone, Birthday, Christmas, Halloween, Easter, Thanksgiving, and New Year one to remember.

Miranda adored her mother, Sister and Nephew. Every Sunday they would spend time together. She took the role of being a Big sister seriously. Amanda was the twinkle of her sister's eye. Spending countless hours on the phone, sharing secrets, and a bond that was out of this world. Amanda blessed her sister by making her an aunt to both Corey and Devin.

Big on sisterhood, Miranda also shared a bond with her best friend Tierra. They created so many memories together. Texting and talking all day long was their thing. Faced with the Battle to fight Breast Cancer, Miranda didn't let her friend face the battle alone. She was there every step of the way, encouraging her, and being the strength she needed to press on. Miranda became the Godmother to Tierra's son, Jaylen, in 2010.

Miranda enjoyed coordinating outings with her girlfriends, attending live concerts, festivals, Shopping, Journaling, making scrap books, taking pictures, cracking jokes, being the life of the party, and dancing until she couldn't dance anymore. Her laugh will always be remembered!
