

Miriam Marlene Mason

September 26, 1939 - September 25, 2004

Miriam Marlene Mason, the first-born child of William Edward Stokes and Miriam L. Burns Stokes, was born on September 26, 1939, in Baltimore, Maryland. Marlene was peacefully called to be with the Lord suddenly on September 25, 2004, one day before her 65th birthday. At an early age, Marlene accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior. She attended, was baptized and became a member of Faith Baptist Church as a young girl. There she sang on Simon Williamson Memorial Choir. Marlene received her early education in the Baltimore City school system, graduating from Dunbar High School in 1957. She furthered her education at Coppin State University and Sojourner Douglass College. Marlene's professional career included positions with General Motors, Continental Can, Westinghouse, and Bethlehem Steel. She was a hard-working woman. Her true love was working with people, thus she most enjoyed her job as a counselor at the Hickey School. The children affectionately called her Ms. M, and they loved her. She was a mother to all children, offering guidance and words of wisdom. Most recently she was caregiver to the elder, including her father. Marlene was a loving and devoted wife. On December 19, 1983, she married her childhood friend, Charles M. Mason, whom she'd known since kindergarten. Although they had no children of their own, they gave their time and love to raising a foster child, Latawsha Phillips, for several years. Charles also has two daughters that Marlene loved as her own, Rita and Kim. Marlene's own child, Susan, preceded her in death, dying shortly after childbirth. Marlene was a fun-loving person. She loved to travel, and she made numerous friends wherever she went. She will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. Precious memories of life will be cherished by her loving husband, Charles; her three daughters, Rita Mason-Lucas, Kim Coleman, and Latawsha Phillips; her son-in-law, Ray Lucas; her four grandchildren, Dajanai Myers, Desiree Myers, Ryejae Myers, and Olivia Lucas; her mother, Miriam L. Stokes; her father, William E. Stokes; her sisters-in-law, Evelyn Stokes, Barbara Mason, Lola Gault; her brother-in-law, Daniel Gault; her niece, Miriam M. Stokes; her nephew, William M. Stokes, Jr.; her great-niece, Maurissa Stokes; her great-nephews, David Lindberg and Maurice Harris; and a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles and friends. She was preceded in death by her brother, six months ago, William M. Stokes, Sr., and her baby daughter, Susan Lucretia.

“ Dear Mason Family, I am very sorry to hear about the lost of your loved one. Death is never an easy thing to go through. The bible tells of a time when these will be things of the past because there will be no more death sickness or pain.Rev 21:4###imported-begin###A. jones###imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. Daniel 12:2 gives a very encouraging promise- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up,these to indefinitely lasting life." May you be comforted by this promise of a resurrection in God's due time on a Paradise earth.(Psalm 37:11& Matthew 5:5)##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ I am sorry for your loss. I know that Mrs Mason will be surley missed. Take time to find comfort from the scriptures they can truly help you through this most difficult time. John 5:28.29 says Do not marvel at this because because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. Revelation 21:3,4 also gives us a sure hope.##imported-begin##ELAINE LUDD##imported-end##
