

Missoura T. Brown

January 2, 1921 - November 21, 2012

MISSOURA TALIAFERRO STRAWDER-BROWN was born on January 2, 1921 in Smithfield, Virginia. Missoura was the seventh of the eleven children born to Henry and Etta Taliaferro. Missoura was preceded in death by her parents; her late husband, John E. Brown; five brothers and three sisters.

Missoura aka as “Brownie” moved to Baltimore, Maryland at an early age. Missoura loved the Lord and became a lifetime member of the St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church, where she remained an active member for over fifty years until her health began to decline.

Missoura was educated at the Paul Laurence Dunbar High School. She gained employment at, and after many years of dedicated service retired from the Baltimore City School System. She loved working with children and was a “giver” from the heart. You could always hear her say, “God’s been good to me and if I can help others, I will”.

Although stricken with sickness, Missoura stretched out her hands and would give from whatever she had to those around her. Now and then she would let you know that her feisty chili pepper temper was alive and well, but that too was all with love. Her sweet spirit always came though.

Missoura is survived by: her daughter, Jacqueline Strawder; three sisters,

Maryetta Wrenn and Viola Holloman from Newport News, Virginia and Marzena Bacchus from Hampton, Virginia; two grandchildren, Darrick and Judy Strawder; six great-grandchildren, four great-great-grandchildren; a very special friend and caregiver, Delores Best; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
