

Mitchell L. Harris

July 4, 1978 - October 27, 2018

MITCHELL LARDON HARRIS, son of Deborah M. Harris-Cates and the late Mitchell C. Hill, was born July 4, 1978 in New York, NY and passed on to nirvana (a perfect happiness) on October 27, 2018.

Mitchell (lovingly called “Mitch”) moved to Baltimore in 1981. He received his education in Baltimore City Public Schools where he met many friends along the way. He was an entrepreneur of design in many things such as tattoos and clothing just to name a few. Mitch was an avid sneaker-head. He had a passion for Japanese Art and he loved to sketch and sew. He also had an ear for good music (all genres).

Mitch was a dreamer, his mind never stopped thinking of ways to make a dollar. He was so free-spirited. He had a dream of starting his own clothing line. He was a big family man who always talked about family being together. Family gatherings lit his world. He also enjoyed cooking, though he was limited to his favorite dish “Grits” which he perfected. If Mitch could leave a word of encouragement to all who knew him, he would say “Do What You Like, Like What You Do”.

Mitch leaves to cherish in memory: his daughters, Re'Shaun and Alexis (mom Ta'Chauyn); three sons, Darren, Dorian (mom Danielle) and Gideon (mom Holland); his mother, Deborah; stepfather, Aubrey; grandmother, Veola

Taybron; godmother, Yvette Moore; godbrother, Raliek Moore and godsister, Lanisha Moore; three brothers, Levant Hill, Shawn Wilkes and Isaiah Hill; sister, India Hill; five uncles, Winden (Vanessa), Gerald, Ronnie (Michele), Charles, David (Michael preceded him in death); three aunts, Janice, Michelle T. And Michelle P.; four nephews, three nieces, two stepsisters, stepbrother and a host of other relatives and friends. His best friend Tushae and Nabill preceded him in death.
