

Monica V. George

January 12, 1929 - June 20, 2018

Monica Veronica George was born January 12, 1929 to the mother of Princess Thomas and father, Edward Newton Charles, in the town of Three Hands Labrea, Trinidad.

Monica was the wife of Hamilton Newton Bartholomew, who preceded her in death, from that union Monica gave birth to three children, Esther Knights, Isabella Theresa Redhead and Roy Bartholomew, to include a step-daughter, Jocelyn Alexander. She was also the grandmother of Elizabeth Ayres, who preceded her in death, Karen Bradford, Kevin Ayres, Andrew Knights, Kimberly Daul, Katie Bradford, Kendall Redhead, who preceded her in death, Krystal Bartholomew, Klint Knights and Keon Redhead. She was the great grandmother to Kiarra, Josephine, Jane, Tyler, Karmen and Kayden. Monica had one brother, Nathan Charles, who preceded her in death. Additionally, left to mourn are: one sister-in-law, Yvonne; sons-in-law, Robert Redhead and Wayne Knights; daughter-in-law, Tonia Bartholomew; and grandsons-in-law, Xavier Bradford and Reginald Bradford. We must mention her best friend, Margaret McCray, who preceded her in death; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Monica dedicated her life to serving Jehovah as a witness, baptized, on July 25, 1970.

She was a servant of hard work after immigrating to America, over 50 years ago. In her years of employment, Monica worked as a Nanny in the state of Virginia for several years. Monica held several jobs throughout her working career. She held the positions of a domestic servant, crossing guard, and lastly, as a custodian for Baltimore City where she retired in 1999.

The life she lived was nothing short of honorable. She was active, vibrant, and fashionably stylish. Until she was attacked with a major stroke in 2013, which led to years of immobility and suffering. On June 20, 2018, Monica our mother and friend is now asleep in death. Where she is awaiting resurrection on earth. Mom thanks for your sacrifice, encouraging words, prayers, tears, and your presence in our lives. You will be truly missed, rest in peace. Your offsprings thank God for you.
