“ May you please accept my condolences for your loss. One day soon there will be no more sickness, sorrow, or death, because God will do away with these enemies that cause us so much grief. 1st Cor 15,26.. He promises at Isaiah 25,8 that he will swallow up death forever." We could expect nothing less from a creator who cares so deeply for us. 1st Peter 5,7. He has entrusted all authority to his Son, Christ Jesus, to raise the dead back to life. John 5,28,29. May our loving father Jehovah give you the comfort that you need to sustain you, and may your precious memories of Monica be a great source of comfort to you too. 2nd Cor: 1,3-4###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end##

“ Jeffress Family, I am so sorry to hear about your recent loss. What I find comforting in situations such as this is the resurrection hope that the Bible holds out for the many who have passed on. Please read Acts 24:15. Also know that God will be there to comfort and strengthen you through His word. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4)###imported-begin###Leah###imported-end##

“ Marie, I am very sorry for your loss. Your mom was the very best. I'm convinced that her prayers are what helped protect me over here in Iraq. I know things are hard for you right now, but rejoice in the fact that Mrs. Monica is free of sickness. She is a healthy angel sitting in her "bedroom window" in heaven. I love you and I will pray for you daily.##imported-begin##Renarda Brisbon##imported-end##
