“ My name is Bruce Crump and I was so very blessed when my path and Monica's path crossed. In November of 2003, some of my closest friends threw a benefit for me when I was being treated for throat cancer. Several bands played - one of them being Phat Albert, now Soulercoaster. During their set, the band did the song " I Will Survive". When the song came to an end, instead of singing " I Will Survive", Monica sang " BRUCE will survive"! I was so moved because not only did she sing it, she hit a note at the end that was otherworldly!!! I felt compelled to come onto the stage and embrace her and quite honestly once I did I didn't want to let go! That is something that will be with me for the rest of my life and I can only imagine how powerfully she must have touched others! God Bless you Monica...the heavenly choir just got an exceptional angel!##imported-begin##Bruce Crump##imported-end##
