“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry for your loss. When persons are friendly and kind we miss not having them around. Our Creator knows how we feel, since he loss his son too. The Bible at Job 14:14,15 says, "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? All the days of my compulsory service I shall wait, Until my relief comes. You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning. I hope this message brings you comfort and hope.##imported-begin##Joseph Hill##imported-end##

“ To The Family of Mr. Johnson: I am very sorry for your great loss and I send my condolences to the entire family. I did not personally know Mr. Johnson, but I noticed that he accepted the Lord as his savior. Since this is true, Mr. Johnson would want the family to find comfort from the scriptures. John 5:28,29 is comforting because it tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...". Also, Isaiah 33:24 describes a time when "no resident will say, 'I am sick'". Thus we must wait on our Almighty Lord to fulfill these promises.##imported-begin##Kendra Adams##imported-end##
