

Monte N. Taylor

December 13, 1958 - June 5, 2013

MONTE NATARIO TAYLOR, departed this life on June 5, 2013 at his home in Baltimore, Maryland. He was born on December 13, 1958. He was the beloved son of Maurice Walter Taylor and Betty Mae Mack Taylor.

Monte, b.k.a. "Terry," was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He graduated from Frederick Douglass High School.

Monte, like his mother, retired from the State of Maryland after many years of service. Terry was a fun-loving person who enjoyed cracking jokes, making you laugh every chance he got. Some of his other hobbies and interest were playing cards, cooking, talking and spending time with friends and family, watching television and listening to music. One of his favorite songs was "These Three Words" by Stevie Wonder.

Terry also loved to chow down on a nice big sandwich with lots of mayo. Back in the day, Terry and his Dad would wipe out a jar in no time, making sandwiches and watching Mike Douglass and Soul Train.

Monte leaves to mourn: loving nieces, Chynna and Shenyia; three brothers, Brett, Darryl and Mark Taylor; one sister-in-law, Dawnette Taylor; one uncle, Robert Mack; two aunts, Mary Mack and Glyda Mack; and not to forget his Mom's best friend, Aunt Gwen; as well as his two best friends, Dallas Gregory and Tyrone Pinkney; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and an ex-wife whom care deeply for him, Tonya Taylor.

“ To the family of Monte:

May the memories of Monte help to ease your pain of sorrow. I was sadden to hear of him passing.

Death is so bad that the Bible liken it as an enemy at 1 Corinthians 15:26 & it will be destroyed forever.

In the meantime, while we are waiting on that promise; Jesus promised a future resurrection at John 5:28 & 29, which states, " Marvel not at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice (Jesus voice) & come out."

We can see our loved ones again right here on this earth but under different conditions; Psalms 37:9,10,11 & 29.

I hope these Scriptures can bring you a measure of comfort until the fulfillment of them.

Love,

“ I can remember whenever I called Terry he would start singing old school songs about love. The first time he did it, I asked him how did he know who it was/ He replied, your name came across my television. I am truly going to miss my friend. We had quite a few laughs together. He also got a kick out of me calling him Monte or Noterri. LOL
