

Morgan Tiffany Frazier

September 13, 1983 - June 11, 2012

MORGAN TIFFANY FRAZIER, born to Stephanie Donald-son and Kevin Frazier on September 13, 1983 in Baltimore, Maryland. Morgan was called home suddenly on June 11, 2012.

Morgan was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. She held numerous administrative jobs over the years. She was motivated to better herself by taking online courses to get a degree in Business Administration.

Morgan gave birth to two beautiful children, Nevaeh and Jamal Frierson Jr., whom she loved dearly. She cherished each and every moment she shared with them. Morgan enjoyed going to the play-ground, watching their favorite movies, and taking them to Chuckie Cheese. Morgan and her twin sisters (Maya&Mia) had what you called sisterly love, they watched movies in which they all called recited the words together. Morgan really loved her grandmother (Jessie Mae), they developed a special bond and their birthday's were a day apart.

Morgan had a special bond with her mom. Even though they didn't agree on everything they were inseparable. They talked many times throughout the day about any and everything. Dwight would often say, is that Morgan again? And thy would just keep talking... Morgan and Dwight had a very special bond, he was the voice of reason; he could always get her to do the right thing. Morgan and her father, Kevin shared some very special moments together. Morgan was Kevin's everything. She cherished the ground he walked on; there was nothing he did wrong in her eyes.

Morgan was fun, outgoing, and the life of the party. She loved to dance, talk and was a good friend to everyone she touched. She loved fashion... she also liked to cook, and eat HAM was one of her favorite! Those who knew Morgan would sat that she spoke her mine and would not bite her tongue for anybody. Morgan, B.K.A. Minnie, would say, "Now that is it" "Big Pimpin"!

Morgan leaves to cherish her memories, her parents Stephanie Donaldson, Kevin Frazier, stepfather Dwight Donaldson, stepmother, Latoya Frazier; children, Nevaeh, Jamal Jr., sisters, Raven, Dia, Tiffany, Maya, Mia, and Zuri; brothers, Brent, Jalil, Ahmed, Isaiah and Ky'Sean; grandparents, Jessie Mae Hairston, preceded in death by Roosevelt Hairston, Sue and David Frazier; Godparents, Angie and Clarence Round, and a host of aunts, uncles, and cousins. Morgan had many friends, but there were four who were very dear to her, Jamal Sr., Denise Carter, D'Neen Lee, and Inethia Brown.

“ I send my heartfelt sympathy to the family of Morgan. I am so sorry that she departed from you. I know how it feels to lose a child, because my Son was about the same age as Morgan when he died. Fifteen years later I still feel his absence, but I can say that the passing of time is a healer. I realized that I could go on with my life. Morgan would want you to go on too. Though it's not easy, you can always go to our heavenly father in deep prayer and he will circle his arms of love and comfort around you to help you to go on. One day you can have the opportunity to be with Morgan again. The resurrection is our hope and it is the one that I also cling to. Jesus said: I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. John 11:25. Jesus demonstrated his power to bring the dead back to life when he was on the earth. He resurrected the only son of a widow, His friend Lazarus, and a 12-year old little girl, as well as many others. At Mark 5:38-43 he took that little 12-year old by the hand and said to her, "I say to you maiden, get up, and the little girl came back to life. Can you imagine the joy her parents must have felt? One day we too will have unspeakable joy when we welcome our loved ones back from the dead. May this hope sustain and strengthen you in the days ahead.

“ The Final Flight

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free, I'm following the path God laid for me.

I took his hand when I heard his call, I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work, to play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way, I've found that peace at the end of the day.

If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah, yes, these things too I will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My Life's been full, I savoured much, Good friends, good times, a loved one' touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me free.

RIP Morgan, I will miss you, and always love you. You will always be remembered.
