

Morris E. Brown

August 2, 1942 - September 18, 2002

Morris Edward Brown son of the late William Donald Brown and Irene Brown was born August 2, 1942 in Baltimore, Maryland. His life ended suddenly on September 18, 2002. Mr. Brown was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Frederick Douglas High School in 1959. After high school, Mr. Brown joined the United States Air Force where he served for four years with an honorable discharge. After his honorable discharge from the United States Air Force, he met and fell in love with Patsy Roberts. On September 10, 1967 they wed. From this union there were two children. Mr. Brown held various jobs in Baltimore City until 1969, when he began a 30-year career as a Baltimore City Police Officer. Mr. Brown was an avid sportsman, a devoted son, brother, husband, father, grandfather, and friend. Anyone, who met him, formed a special bond with him. His bright smile, loving gestures, and encouraging wisdom will forever dominate our memories. Although Mr. Brown never dedicated his life to Jehovah, he was never opposed to his family worshiping Him. In fact, he found comfort in the scriptures, especially, Jehovah's Promise of a Resurrection. Mr. Brown is survived by his wife, Patsy N. Brown; three daughters, Dulcinae S. Brown, Antoinette Pineiro, and Claudette Brown; five grandchildren, Dulcia Brown, Mark Brown, Jasmine Brown, Darneka Brown and Morris Brown; one sister, Geraldine Sanders; one nephew, Phillip Sanders; one uncle, Louis Martin; six sisters-in-law, four brothers-in-law, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ We shared food, laughter, love and all around good times with each other; Morris will be sorely missed. The conversation we would have while walking around the complex and just riding around looking at Jacksonville. I wish I could be there. We will continue in GOD's promised hope of a resurrection with ednurance and faith. May Jehovah keep you in HIS care and comfort you with HIS love. I will keep in touch. Take care.##imported-begin##James Tilghman##imported-end##
