

Morris James

April 24, 1947 - January 22, 2006

Let us rejoice and give thanks for many years that our Heavenly Father allowed us to share with our devoted husband, brother, father, great-grandfather, uncle, cousin and friend, MR. MORRIS JAMES, SR. Morris was the son of the late Thomas and Annie James. He was born in Charleston, South Carolina on April 24, 1947. He answered the call for eternal rest on Sunday, January 22, 2006. At an early age he joined Central Baptist Church where he served faithfully. He was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System at Samuel Gompers Elementary and Fairnount Hill Jr./Sr. High Schools. After high school he enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps branch of military service. He also graduated from Superior Training Services a certified tractor trailer driver. He embarked on several trades but truck driving was his passion. Morris never met a stranger; he made numerous friends wherever he went. His spontaneous smile and calm voice enlightened everyone he met. To many he was a confidant and a friend. His compassion, kindness and generosity were felt by many disabled, hospitalized and less fortunate. His strong will, honesty, wisdom, openness and genuine love of humanity will be missed by his family and all who knew him. He leaves to cherish his precious memory: his devoted wife, Christine who shared 35 years of life with him; sisters, Deloris Thomasina Oates and Shirley Davis; daughters, Iantha Maureen and Yvette; sons, Morris, Jr. and Marcus; mother-in-law, Ruth; daughter-in-law, Kimberly; son-in-law, Gwynn; five aunts, nineteen grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, three brothers-in-law, four sisters-in-law, seven nieces and nephews and a host of cousins and dear friends.

“ Hello ! James ! I would to send condolences to you all. When death hit it hurts. Our creator knows how you all are feeling and is there to give comfort in all your tribulations as the bible say at 2 Cor. 1:3. The time is coming when death will be gone and there will be no more pain , tears of sorrow, as Rev.21:3-5 says. May all the happy times shared with Mr. Morris be a support to you all faith in your heavenly father. Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

Good morning. My name is Toyia James. I am the youngest daughter of Morris James. I miss my dad so much today. I decided to read his obituary. My name wasn't mentioned in the obituary but I know that my father loved me just as much as he did his other kids.
