

Morris Nathaniel Lewis

August 25, 1959 - May 25, 2005

Morris N. Lewis, son of the late William H. Lewis Sr. and Louise Lewis, was born on August 25, 1959 in Manhattan, N.Y. He departed this life on May 24, 2005 at Good Samaritan Hospital. Morris was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. After high school, Morris joined the United States Marine Corps where he served four years and was honorably discharged. Morris worked for MRDCC as a correctional officer for eighteen years. He was a great gift and loved everyone he came in contact with; especially if a keyboard was involved, you had an even better friend. Morris leaves to mourn: one sister, Regina Lewis; brother, Curtis Lewis; two nephews, Jaimie Singletary Jr. and Deonta Jacobs; stepson, Michael Blackwell; a devoted companion of ten years, Kimmerla Blackwell; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I send my condolences to the entire family. The Bible also offers us a comfort that we have to look forward to. John 5:28,29 speaks about a hope of a resurrection. Also, Rev. 21:4 describes a time when "the former things have passed away". May you be comforted.##imported-begin##Kendra A##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
