

Morris Lee Pearsall

November 26, 1945 - March 16, 2011

MORRIS LEE PEARSALL, was the son of the late Emma Gertrude Pearsall and June Strong. He was born on November 26, 1945 in Mt. Olive, North Carolina. He departed this life on March 16, 2011 at Blue Point Nursing Home.

He received his education in the Wayne County Public School System. After completing his education, Morris migrated to Baltimore, Maryland. He held various jobs, but the job he likes the best was at the Baltimore Fleet and Tucking Company, where he was a tractor trailer driver.

Morris met a special friend, Violene Bullock. This union was blessed with one daughter, Marcia Lavern Pearsall, who preceded him in death.

He had the gift of being able to draw about anything he wanted to. His paintings can still, to this day, be seen on the front of houses a long Park Heights Avenue between Woodland and Virginia Avenues.

He is survived by: a brother, Jimmie E. Pearsall; sister-in-law, Kay J. Pearsall of Baltimore, Maryland; three aunts, Christine Armwood of Mt. Olive, North Carolina, Dorothy Parmely and Rachel Coe of Baltimore, Maryland; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends, including long-time, valued friend, Gloria Frierson.
