“ My sweet, wonderful loving mother. Words cannot express the deep pain and void your departure have left in my heart.

Whether you were in Connecticut or Virginia, any little chance I got to come and visit you, I always jump at the chance. I will value those moment in my heart forever. I love ❤️ you Mama.

I still have so many birthday and Christmas cards you sent to me over the years.

I remember once when I was a child in Bartons, you stop doing what you were doing, paused and looked at me. Your reply, "I wonder if God would spare my life to see all of you become big man and woman."

Mama, He has spared your life and more to see your prayer answered.

Sleep well my loving, kind, tender hearted mom.

Forever in my heart ❤️

You Son,

Ronald.
