“ Moses Watson Jr.

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I didn't know Mr Moses personally, but I share with you in your sorrow, and I pray that you find much comfort in your memories of Mr Moses. God's purpose for us didnot include pain and sorrow, or death, and one day soon his purpose for a paradise earth will be fulfilled. May the following scriptures bring you much comfort. Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 65:17, Psalm 37:9-11, and Revelation 21:3-5. I wish your family much peace.

“ I'll never forget when I used to sit on the porch and talk with Mr. Watson about many things...he had a lot of wisdom and was a good friend. One day, one of the grands got into some trouble and he told him to "get me a switch from one of those trees", of course he brought back the smallest switch...Mr. Watson got up and pulled off the biggest & thickest switch he could find on the tree and got him good on his backside. Now if more parents could be like that now, children wouldn't be out of control today. He was respected and loved by everyone, we will miss you Mr. Moe....

“ Mr. Watson, I remember when I started working as one of your caregivers, you always smiles, winked your eyes and give more kisses. This was your way of telling us that you loved, care and appreciated everything that we could do for you. On Tuesday evening when I came to see you, you held on to my hand for thirty minutes and just kept rubbing my hand, your warmth that you leave with me will always be remembered. I guess it was your way of telling me so long. May your soul and all departed rest in perfect peace.

“ (Romans 15:4) For all the things that were written aforetime were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort from the Scriptures we might have hope.

I am one of the international Bible Students in the area. I would like to send condolences to the family. There is a God of comfort and you can read your Bible so that he can help you during this time in your life. I hope these scriptures help comfort you.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
