

Mott Curly Moore Jr

January 31, 1936 - January 25, 2011

MOTT C. MOORE, JR. son of the late Mott c. Moore, Sr. and Susie Lee Moore was born on January 31, 1936 in Fair Bluff, North Carolina and departed this life on January 25, 2011 after a lengthy illness. He received his education at Westside High School in Chadbourn, North Carolina where he excelled in Agriculture. He accepted Jesus Christ as his Personal Savior and was baptized at an early age.

In 1960 at the age of twenty-four he left North Carolina for Baltimore, Maryland where he was later employed and retired as a forklift operator at Michel's Distribution Service in Belcamp, Maryland. M.C., as he was often called, known as James to his friends, enjoyed life to its fullest. He loved to be around his family and friends and he would not hesitate to help anyone in need, often offering good sound advice to those whose load became a little too hard to bear. His belief was that "everyone is going to need some help along the way."

He was an avid sports fan, and he could be seen on my given weekend watching his favorite teams compete. He loved good food and was an excellent cook; he especially loved cooking out on the backyard grill during family functions and holidays. He also was a lover of good music and good times and fishing was one of his most favorite past-times that he enjoyed, and always talked about.

He leaves to mourn: his dedicated wife, Irene Moore; daughter, Terri L. Moore-Bryant; two sons, David O. Moore, Sr. and Paul McMillian; two grandsons, David O. Moore, Jr. and Reginald Joshua Bryant; two sisters, Mary Elizabeth Moore-Vereen and Vernie Ruth Moore-Brown; two brothers, William J. Moore and Johnny L. Moore, Sr.; brothers-in-law, Herbert Vereen, Tony Brown, Walter M. Toller and James Bullock; sisters-in-law, Louella Moore, Beverly Moore, Loretta Moore, Rosa Lee Bullock, Carrie Harris, Arzola Toller, Ardesia Ross and Mary Toller; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

“ *To the family of M.C,
May God's riches blessing surround you now in this your time of grief and loss knowing that earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. M.C. was a friend to my mom and my family from my earliest memories as a child when both my sister Beverly and brother Charles were first married to his siblings.
Praying your strength in the Lord,
Rev. Angela Burden (sister-in-law of Johnny Lee)*

“ Uncle MC its hard to believe you are no longer here but i know you are truly in a better and much happier place. Until we met again, say hi to my grandaddi and continue to watch over us and proect us until we join yoi all in heaven. You will never be forgotten.

“ Uncle MC,
We know that God is holding you in his loving hands & that knowledge comforts us as we know that to be absent in body is to be present with the Lord. We Love You and are missing you.

“ Dear Moore Family, Please accept my sincere sympathy on the loss of your loved one. May you find comfort and encouragement from Gods promise of a resurrection as brought out at Acts 24:15. I hope you will take a moment to read this scripture and that it helps you with your grief.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians assures us that our enemy death will be destroyed. Also, Acts 24:15 declares "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope that will be made possible by Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ.

“ My uncle loved to walk. I never known him to operate a car. He would prefer to walk than to ride. He would walk downtown. Yes, he would walk from his house to downtown Baltimore and back home. I am certain that he missed his long walks.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
