

Mozelle Carter

September 2, 1929 - October 18, 2004

Mozelle Rogers Carter was born on September 2, 1929 to Clifford D. and Ester Burrell Rogers of Kittrell, North Carolina. She left to go home on October 18, 2004 to see her Eternal Father GOD and Our LORD JESUS CHRIST, and paternal father (Dee). Mozelle attended Fayetteville State Teachers' College and Duke University where she majored in music. She taught in the Baltimore City Public School System for a number of years before changing careers and becoming a social worker for Baltimore City Department of Social Services. She married Robert T. Carter, Sr., a decorated sailor in the U.S. Navy. Out of this union there were five children: Roslyn, Patricia, Robert Jr., Brian, and Anthony. Mozelle's love for her music and people was only outweighed by profound and unselfish love for her children. She was an accomplished classical pianist, which she taught to her children. She especially loved Beethoven's Moonlight Sonata. She made friends everywhere she went, from the farmers market to loiterers hanging out by the neighborhood corner store. She was known for lively and unexpected clichés. There will never be another person to take her place. In the community she was a pillar and the foundation, for she kept it standing. Yes, she will be surely missed. She leaves behind to mourn: two daughters, Roslyn and Patricia; three sons, Robert Jr., Brian, and Anthony; two daughters-in-law, Doreen and Lynette; one son-in-law, six sisters, Marceline (twin), Shirley, Helen, Ethel, Geneva, and Alice; two brothers, Chris and Morris; three granddaughters, Renee, Raquel, and Christina; seven grandsons, Charles Jr., Brian Jr.,

Anthony II, Steffen, Terrell, Mark and Emmanuel; ten great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and a host of relatives, neighborhood friends and more friends.

“ I would like to offer my sincere condolences to the family. I am sorry you have lost your loved one in death. Take comfort from God's word the Bible which states at 2 Corinthians 1:3 & 4, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,, the Father of tender mercies and God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation..." Also, Jesus said that he was the resurrection and the life and he that exercises faith in him, even though he dies, will come to life - John 11:25 & 26. Draw strength from this provision for the resurrection of the dead, which is a magnificent expression of God's underserved kindnessand most of all love for us - John 5:28 & 29.##imported-begin##Mertina Elliott##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. The Bible holds out promises that we can put our complete faith and trust in. One such promise is found at 1 Corinthians 15:26 where we are told that the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing. May you put faith and trust in this promise because that is a wonderful hope to look forward to. Again, please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Such a person with so many talents and skills and who gave so much of herself will be missed. She is loved by people, but she is loved by the Creator who gave her all of those wonderful gifts. The most precious gift she had was her life. The Creator promises to restore life for many who have lost it in death. Please notice Daniel 12:2- "Many, many people of the earth that are dead and buried will wake up. Some of them will wake up to have life forever." May this divinely inspired promise add to your strength and give you much comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
