

Muriel M. Day

December 21, 1936 - August 6, 2014

MURIEL M. DAY, daughter of the late Benjamin and Eugenia Sterling, was born on December 21, 1936 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on August 6, 2014.

She was raised in the Methodist church, accepting Christ as her Lord and Savior. She was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and then furthered her education at a Maryland school for business.

She married the late Frank Herman Day Sr. and from that union seven children were born, which yielded a large family whom she devoted her life to. As a single parent, she worked hard to support and provide for her family. Muriel's love and devotion continued on, ever present during the lives of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, always supporting them and encouraging their success.

She began her career at the Social Security Administration in 1971, from which she retired after 38 years of service in 2009. Throughout her life, even during retirement, she continued doing the things she loved — spending time with her family, bowling, traveling, shopping, and of course, adding to her shoe collections.

She was preceded in death by her loving son Frank Day Jr. She leaves to cherish her memory: her sister, Gladys Smith; her six children, Tyrone Day (Karen), Yvonne Patillo (James), Nadiyah Johnson (Tyrone), Monica Burrell (Reginald Jr.), Derrick Day, and Earl Day; her eight grandchildren, Aaron Jr., Ameerah, Reginald III, Antwan, David, Na'im, Atiya, and Kelly; her ten great-grandchildren, two nieces, two nephews; a devoted family friend, Teresa Bailey; a host of other extended family and friends.

“ Dear Family,

It is written in Matthew 11:28 (KJV) “Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

So heavenly Father in Jesus name, I pray as our brothers and sisters began to walk through this journey of healing, may your Spirit take full control of them. Carry them through their dark days-for you are the light of the world. Carry them through their lonely days, because you are a Good shepherd who cares for his sheep. John 10:11

To the Day family take comfort in knowing your loved one is now in eternal peace with her heavenly Father.

*Peace and Blessings,

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he resurrected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.

“ Dear family,
I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible has given hope and comfort to millions of people who have lost loved ones in death. Have you ever wondered what hope there is for the dead? The Bible clearly states God's promise of a resurrection, at John 5:28, 29 Marvel not at this: for the hour cometh, in which all that are in the tombs shall hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life.....again I'm am so sorry.
