

Mya Janeice Carr

May 5, 2006 - February 27, 2012

MYA JANEICE CARR, born on May 5, 2006, the daughter of Shamera Bradley. She attended Ashburton Elementary School. She was a kindergarten student who loved attending school. Mya enjoyed her role as a big sister to her little brother Ryan.

Mya's favorite movie was "The Princess and The Frog." Her favorite character was Princess Tiana. She also enjoyed playing dress up in her Princess Tiana costume. At any given time Shamera would find her dress up in her heels and her tracks sitting on top of her head.

She really enjoyed past time with her little cousin Gerome and her uncle Jerome. She enjoyed going to Pizza hut, taking pictures and she loved to eat. She will truly be missed.

She leaves to cherish her memory: a loving mother, Shamera Bradley; one loving bother, Ryan; grandparents, Jackie (Jeanette) Bradley and James (Patricia) Morton; great-grandparents, Susie Hough and Bettye Jean (Calvin) Bradley, five uncles, four aunts, six great-uncles, three-great aunts, six great-great-uncles, eight great-great-aunts; and a host of cousins and friends; including father figure, Brain Edwards.

Although I didn't know little Mya nor do I know her family, I want to express my deepest and heartfelt sympathies to Mya's Mom and family on the passing of their beloved daughter, granddaughter, sister, neice, cousin, and friend. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Although Mya's passing has left a massive void in your lives, I pray your wonderful memories of Mya, her beautiful smile, her joy, her laughter and youthful enthusiasm will comfort each and everyone who came in touch with the beautiful gift by the name of Mya and bring a smile to your face and healing to your hearts. We may not understand why God brought Mya home to Heaven so soon. God must have needed another angel to sing on His choir. Mya's going home to be with the Lord may have left a gaping hole in the hearts of those who loved her, but imagine what you would have missed had you never held Mya in your arms, shared Jesus with Mya, laughed with Mya, taught her and cherished Mya each and every day that she was here on this Earth. Every life, every child is a wonderfully made sample of God's handiwork (Psalm 139). Death robs us of a certain completion we desire in a life, but it also reminds us of the value of each life God creates (Colossian 1:16) No one knows the day or hour that the Lord will say come on home so we should cherish the gift of life and savor the joy of God's handiwork. May God Bless you all at this difficult time and grant you the peace that surpasses all understanding in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

During the specific time of leaving the lit candle my heart was so full and heavy with sorrow for such a loss of a young too young beautiful little life. I was not able to document my condolences then, I'm still having some loss of thoughts and words... To the family, her little friends, teacher, all she held close and all who were close to her, she does not have to try to live, understand, and suffer the cruelty of this world any more. Just believe that her absence from this cruel life has moved her far beyond a calm, peaceful, caring, more secured happiness than we can ever experience on this earth... I feel for all who will feel the void. Absent from the earth ,present with the Lord. Thank God for another new bright star in the elements - Now Angel Mya... You'll Be In My Prayers, Gloria Mack “ Sorry to hear about the death of your loved one. The bible says at Revelation 21:4 “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away”. God gives us this promise.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The poem below was written by my mother and like she said I hope that you find some comfort in it. The 2- year old little boy that she is talking about is my little boy. I know it isn't much but please accept my condolences and prayers in this sad time. Me and my mother know all to well what you all are having to go through. May god bless you all and remember little Mya is now a beautiful little angel that is watching over each and everyone of you.

“ Our Little Angel

*Our little angel who has gone home,
No more on this earth to roam.
We miss you so much since you've gone away,
You were the sunshine that brightened our days!*

*I hear your laughter as with the angels you play,
In that land of no night, just endless day.
As God watches over you in that beautiful place,
I can only imagine the smile upon His face.*

*So your memory will stay with us strong and true,
Until it's time for us to join you.
We'll remember all the love and joy you gave to us all,
Until Jesus for "Our little angel" did call.*

This poem was one I wrote when I lost my sweet 2 year old grandson to a tragedy somewhat like this. I hope it gives Mya's family some peace and comfort during this sad time. You just always have to remember that she is held in the arms of Love and no one can ever hurt her again. I send my love and prayers for each one touched by this tragedy. God Bless You All!

“ Sweetest Mya,
How quietly you tiptoed into our world. Softly, only a moment you stayed but what an imprint your footprints have left upon our hearts. Your smile and laugh could bring to life even the most wilted flower. I remember the day we went to watch Uncle PooPoo participate in the Charity Dragon Boat Races. We got so hot that we went into the Science Center for a drink and to cool down. I remember you taking my cell phone and laughing hysterically as we pretended to make phone calls to complete strangers. Ohhh how your laughter echoed and filled the corridors of that place !! I remember how we would talk on the phone and you would always say "DUHHHHHH !" just because you knew you were going to make me laugh. How about all the times I teased Grandma by telling her that you got your beautiful looks from your Aunt Angie? Grandma thought it was funny but shhhhhh (we now it was true !). Oh yes my sweet Mya ... you still echo and linger in my heart. It is THERE that I will hold you until we meet again my sweet angel. Slumber sweetly young one, and always know that this world was a better place for having had you for a fleeting moment.
OUR LOSS IS HEAVEN'S GAIN.
