

Myesha D. Cooper

October 29, 1988 - December 14, 2014

MYESHA DANIELLE COOPER, beloved daughter of Joanne Jacobs and Glen Cooper, was born October 29, 1988 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life peacefully on December 14, 2014.

Myesha was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools; she later received her G.E.D., furthering her education. Myesha attended Coppin State University where she studied nursing. In 2004, Myesha became a member of High Rock Baptist Church. On March 23, 2007 Myesha gave birth to her only beautiful child, Gamaya Pride (Fats) as she would call her, who she loved so dearly. Myesha made friends wherever she went. She loved making jokes, playing basketball, spending time with her family, listening to music, taking pictures and dancing.

She leaves to cherish her memories: daughter, Gamaya Pride; mother, Joanne Jacobs; father, Glen Cooper; two grandmothers, Jannie Mae Baker (Juanita Bolar preceded her in death); two grandfathers, Henry Lee Jacobs and Glen Cooper Sr. (both preceded her in death); three sisters, Apria Jackson, Elizabeth and Rebecca Cooper; two brothers, Antonio and Glen Cooper Jr.; step-sister, Victoria; two nephews, Tayeshawn and Troy David; niece, Mahilah Fulton; aunts, Annie, Alma, Gloria and Luretha Jacobs, Juanita Fulton, Glenda Fallin and Patricia Gaither; eight uncles, Randy and Henry Jacobs Jr., Larry Fulton Sr., Ray Fallin, Gary Gaither, (Michael Jacobs, Howard Higgins and Andre Lee preceded her in death); special friend, Moses Rush; and a host of special cousins, relatives and friends.

GAMAYA MAKAYLA PRIDE

I'm so sad about what happened. She is up in heaven. She is my mommy, now

she got to go. I'm so sad about the fire, she got to come back. I need her.

Everybody loves her just like her daughter. Now she's up in heaven. Everyday I cry about her like I'm crying when I'm singing, now I'm crying. It was not her turn to go.

Nobody

wanted her to go Rosa, Gamaya, MoMo, Gremney, Joanne, Ryn'nea, Ryonna, Kia, RynRyn, Javir. Now she up in heaven.

“ Please accept my sincerest condolences on the death of your love one. My thoughts are with you and your family. Try to remember the little things that you shared a smiles, the warm hugs, and the laughter. The pain might seem unbearable now, but in time, it is these memories that will win through and you will find happiness again.

There is so many questions people ask. Why did my love one have to die? Why did God take my love one? Will I see her or him again? Did God need another angel? What is the condition of the dead? Was humans created by God to die? Where are the dead? The Holy Bible gives the truth to these questions. And truth from the Bible is what gives us hope and comfort to endure.

God made man to live forever on earth. He placed the first human couple in a delightful paradise. He blessed them with perfect health. Jehovah wanted only good for them. He wanted them to enjoy endless happiness on earth. Ecclesiastes 3:11 “...He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has even put eternity in their heart...” God created us with the desire to live forever. So the questions about you can find satisfying answers from the Holy Bible. What the Bible teaches about the condition of the dead is comforting and will help you draw closer to God. And you will see God is a god of love. 1John 4:8 “...because God is love” Love is Jehovah God dominant characteristic, Faith and love in God’s and his word the Bible give us peace and hope, even if we don’t fully understand because of Jehovah God love for us, he will give you answers.

May the Bible give you peace of mind and understanding of why.
