

Myra E. Hall

October 10, 1966 - December 11, 2002

On Wednesday, December 11, 2002, Myra Eunice Hall took her departure on the Heaven Gospel Train. Myra Eunice Hall was born in Baltimore City the daughter of the late Earl Hall Sr. and her mother, Hazel Hall. She was beautiful baby girl born on October 10, 1966, the day after her grandmother Eunice Davis birthday. Myra was the youngest of four children. Myra graduated from Northern High School in Baltimore City with honors. She then went on to complete secretarial school. Myra began to work for the State of Maryland at the Department of Motor Vehicles (MVA) as a Secretary. Myra enjoyed her family and friends and was a faithful sister. She had a smile that would brighten your dark days. She touched the lives of everyone around her. She leaves to cherish her memory: a son, Sean Williams; a daughter, Karla Phillips; her grandmother, Eunice Davis; her mother, Hazel Hall; big brother, Lonnie Davis and sister-in-law, Pamela Davis; a brother, Earl Hall Jr.; sister, Diane White and brother-in-law, Garth White Sr.; aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, many relatives and friends.
