

Myrna L. Perry

December 18, 1947 - March 2, 2025

Legacy of Life and Love

Myrna L. Perry was born on December 18, 1947, in Richmond, Virginia to the late Mr. & Mrs. Quarles. She departed this life on March 2, 2025, leaving behind a legacy of love, resilience, and devotion to her family.

A proud graduate of Maggie Walker High School, Myrna later married William Henry Perry, with whom she built a life filled with love and dedication. She was formerly employed by the National Linen Cleaning Service, where she worked diligently.

Myrna had a deep love for music and found joy in playing the piano. She was also a talented knitter and crocheter, creating beautiful works with her hands. More than anything, she was a wonderful provider and a pillar of strength for her family.

Myrna was much loved by all who knew her and will be deeply missed. Though her physical presence is gone, her spirit remains in our hearts and minds forever. She was tired and ready to go home, and when she called out to God, He gave her peace.

She was preceded in death by her brothers, Bobbie, Ricky, and June, as well as a sister, Barbara Quarles; and her niece, Monica Jackson. Myrna leaves to cherish her memory her twin beloved sons, Anton and Andre Perry; two daughters-in-law, Latasha Wyche and Dana Perry; two grandsons, Anton Perry Jr. and Marajay Perry; niece Keisha Brown; nephews, Timothy Smith Jr., and Jerome Hamlette III; a host of cousins and dear friends; her extended family members, Cyril R. Robinson, and Angel Christian; and a caring friend, Cora.

Her love endures, and her memory will never fade.

“ Our condolences to Anton and Andre. She may be gone, but she will never be forgotten. She lived her life being of service to others. She lived her life in service to her children. Her love was pure and laced with so much grace. Allow her legacy of love and joy to forever live in and through each of you. Become her light of the world! A place has been prepared, where there are many mansions. She has found her way home, and into eternity. There's no more suffering. No more pain. No more sickness. God says, that she can count it all joy! Job well done! Rest easy in paradise.
