

Myrtle Dickerson

August 24, 1916 - October 14, 2005

MYRTLE DICKERSON, born August 24, 1916 to Emma Louise Wilson and Charles Major Wilson, departed this life on October 14, 2005. Myrtle was born and raised in Baltimore City and attended Baltimore City Public Schools. She met and married George Oliver Dickerson at an early age, and from this union six children were conceived. Lovingly remembered as a strong opinionated person, Myrtle believed in her early morning walks for exercise. She was a devoted member of Israel Baptist Church and was faithful in making her tithes and donations. She especially enjoyed going on shopping trips and various tours with her friends at the Oliver Senior Center. Bingo was one of her favorites, as well as visiting various vacation spots with her late son William and historical tours with her sister Louise. Knitting and sewing were among her favorite pastimes, as well as arts and crafts such as ceramics. She made many keepsakes and gifts for her many nieces and nephews and grandchildren. She will be remembered as the little lady who loved living everyday as if each day was a promise of a new adventure. Myrtle is survived by: son, James Dickerson Sr.; daughters, Louise Bell and Isabelle Dickerson; one sister, Louise Blake; grandchildren, Charlene, Robert, Catherine, Brenda, Dorothy, James Jr., Linwood, Ada, Richard, Denise, Joann, Robin, Stephen and Yolanda; numerous great-grandchildren and great-great grandchildren.

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Although Ms. Myrtle lived a good long life, Almighty God and his Son Jesus Christ promises even more. Please notice John 11:20-25- "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." Also, he promised Paradise in which this will happen. {Luke 23:43 and Matthew 5:5} May you receive much comfort from these loving promises in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincerest condolences. I know your loss must be painful. During this difficult time, the Bible can be very helpful. Almighty God has a hope for your dear loved one and your family. John 5:28,29 promises, "...all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." Continue to draw strength from each other and the scriptures.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends my deepest condolences. May you cherish her memory. The Bible has words of comfort. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 states, "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##
