

Myrtle Hurge

January 10, 1927 - December 12, 2016

On Monday, December 12, 2016, God called home his loving daughter MYRTLE HURGE. Myrtle was born on January 10, 1927 in Jamaica, West Indies.

As a young woman she moved to Baltimore, Maryland to seek employment. It was no secret that Myrtle was gifted in sewing. After finding work as a find seamstress, Myrtle diligently worked until she earned enough money to purchase her home at 4943 Edgemere Avenue, where she resided for 55 years.

After retirement she became a dedicated member of United Methodist Church on Reisterstown Road.

Myrtle enjoyed spending time with her friends, Nora, Thelma, Vivian, Violet, Earl, Philip, Tammy and Emmanuel, just to name a few. She especially enjoyed the time she spent with her cats, which she loved so dearly.

Though she was a resident at The Ashley Homes for a short time, she will be greatly missed.
