

Myrtle Mae Jones

May 10, 1931 - June 30, 2021

Legacy of Life

Myrtle Jones was born on May 10, 1931 in Richmond, Virginia to the late Amanda Kenney and Wilson Jones. She went home to be with her heavenly Father on Wednesday, June 30, 2021. She was preceded in death by her husband of 51 years, James E. Jones, Sr.; daughters Veronica Jones and Cheryl Fleming; brothers Vermont Kenney and Woodrow Blakey.

Myrtle leaves to cherish her loving memories, a daughter, Diane Pinkney (Michael); sons, James E. Jones Jr. (Halima) and Vincent V. Jones (Tracy); grandchildren, Chantae Fleming, Jazmine Douglas, Jahson Carrington, James E. Jones III, Rania Jones and Fatima Jones; 18 great-grandchildren; sister, Theresa "Lots" Woolfork and brother, Rev. Louis Blakey; bonus daughters, Thelma Matthews, Juanita Crockett and Rev. Carolyn Winston; 2 devoted friends, Evangelist Julia Cadia Chrisp and Joan Groome, and a host of other loving relatives and friends.

Myrtle retired from Philip Morris in Richmond, Virginia after 30 years of service, but the job that she was most proud of was leading souls to Christ. "Mrs Myrtle" never missed an opportunity to witness to someone about the greatness of her God and how He could turn their lives around. Myrtle dearly loved her family and left them with a legacy of the power of prayer and the importance of having a relationship with Christ.

“ My dear, sweet, and loving friend, though we may have grown far apart, my love for you remained the same. I Know you are with our Loving Father and that means everything to me. Until we meet again in Glory. I love you very much Myrtle Jones.

“ Mrs. Myrtle entered my life while I was a first year student at UVA. Her daughter, Diane, was my roommate and very dear friend. Being far from home was easier after Mrs. Myrtle and family 'adopted' me into theirs. She soon let me know I had a home where I would always be welcome.

When my mother passed away, her comforting words and advice carried me through that difficult time and more difficult times to follow. I am certain her presence in your lives will do the same for you. Be at Peace, my family.

Rest in Peace, dear Lady!

“ *To the Jones Family:
My thoughts and prayers are with Diane and Mike Pinckney and family during this time of depletion and loss. To lose a mother is a solitary event that transforms one’s life forever. We never get over it; we learn to live with it. “Be not dismayed whate’er betide, God will take of you.” I sat where you are sitting 25 years ago and God has blessed me to keep on keeping on.*
