

Myrtle C. Lacks

November 11, 1929 - August 21, 2020

Then he said, Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom. Some manuscripts come with your kingly power. Jesus answered him, truly I tell you, today you will be with me in paradise.”

Luke 23:42-43 NIV

Myrtle C. Logan Lacks, the daughter of the late Aubrey and Mary Logan was born November 11, 1929, in Richmond, Virginia. She departed this life August 21, 2020.

Myrtle was educated in the Richmond Public School system. She found Christ at an early age and was united with First Union Baptist Church in Richmond, Virginia. Later in life, she joined Fifth Baptist Church.

For years, she worked as a loyal domestic technician for several Richmond families. She was a wonderful provider to others and made sure that the best care was given.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Willie Lacks, Jr. and children, two sons, Leroy Logan and Cornelius Lacks; two daughters, Diane Lacks, Carol Lomax and grandson, Teddy Jr.; sisters, Georgia Anderson, Marie Wright, Elizabeth Johnson, Margaret Goodman; brothers, Richard, Albert, Sandy, Alexander and Oscar Logan.

She is survived by her caring daughter, Carolyn Lacks Fowler and her husband, Theodore L. Fowler, Sr.; son, Oscar Lacks and his wife, Berlette Lacks; 14 grandchildren, 20 great-grandchildren, 9 great-great-grandchildren; son-in-law, Joseph Lomax, Jr. and a host of other relatives and friends.

God saw you getting tired, so He put His arms around you and whispered, "Come to me".
With tearful eyes we watched you and you passed away.
Although, we loved you deeply, we could not make you stay.
A golden heart always helping her family along the way.
Mom would give you her last.
Love you, Mom
