

Myrtle M. Robinson

January 13, 1949 - October 10, 2018

MYRTLE MAE ROBINSON, daughter of the late Osborne and Ellen B. Robinson, was born on January 13, 1949 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on Wednesday, October 10, 2018 at Johns Hopkins Hospital after a lengthy illness.

Myrtle received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. After continuing her education, she then went on to receive a Secretarial Degree and became employed by the Baltimore City Department of Public Works, and retired as a Training and Safety Instructor, after 30 years of service. She was a lifelong member of The Church of the Redeemed of the Lord.

In 1961, Myrtle met and fell in love with the late George Edward Norris; and out of this union three children were born, Georgetta N. Barnes, Jennifer N. Saunders and Andre Norris (her baby son who preceded her in death).

Myrtle, better known as “Mae Mae” (Ms. Call the Police), made numerous friends wherever she went especially at the Bingo Halls. She loved her family dearly and would do anything for her grandchildren. She had a heart of pure Gold and a smile that would light up any room. She was a woman of multiple talents and mastered them all. She was an Amazing, beautiful and loving woman. She loved life and lived her life to the fullest. There is one phrase she would always say in a sweet and humble voice, whenever you called her on the phone was: “PRAISE THE LORD”.

She leaves to mourn: daughters, Georgetta Norris Barnes, Jennifer Norris Saunders, and Terona Hopkins; sons, Andre Robinson and George Norris Jr.; two sisters, Karen Williams and Rachael Lee; one brother and his wife, Osborne and Delores Robinson; and Mr. Joseph H. Lee III, brother; grandchildren, Denisha Barnes, Ricardo Saunders, Shantonial Barnes, Denaya Barnes, Derrick Saunders, and Jerrico Saunders; Tylissa, Mylissa, Calissa, Jay Rouzer, and Joyce Sanders, her bingo partner; nineteen great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

Preceding her in death: Francina Robinson, sister; Richard Saunders, son-in-law; Sheronda Dean, niece; and Ms. Rosalyn Jackson, friend.
