“ I am sorry to read about the passing away of our love one. Please accept my sincere condolences. May the family find comfort and support in the Holy Scriptures knowing Jehovah God is aware of your distress during this time. God promise at John 5:25 which says : The hour is coming ...when the dead will hear the voice of son of God (Jesus) and those who have given heed will live. My deepest sympathies to your entire family.

“ While it is never easy for the living when a loved one transitions to life eternal with our Lord and Savior, the Bible gives us comforting hope in I Corinthians 15:49-58. We love you, and pray for you knowing that God will comfort your hearts.

The Lord make His face shine on you,

“ *To the family of Myrtle R. Williams:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ Hello Parker Family

My name is Clarence Grant and I wanted to express my condolence to the family. I lost both my parents to death in recent years and the pain of the loss is now bearable. Within time feeling of remorse do lessen despite the terrible void that is in our heart. Many wonder did God intend for us to live this way. The answer is No. Ecc 3:11 states that he has put eternity in our heart. God don't change. His original purpose for Adam and Eve is still the same. The lord Prayer is his "Will" "Will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven" Matt 6:9-15. Please keep in mind the word of Faithful Job (Job 14:14,15) This bible verse has help me immeasurably. I hope that the family continue to cope with the loss and meditate on Ps 145:116. My contact cgrant@mris.com 410-336-4476 or please visit our web site www.jw.org

“ My deepest sympathies to your family. It is never easy losing someone you love, especially someone so caring of others. God promises permanent relief from our griefs at Rev. 21: 4, which states "And he will wipe EVERY tear from their eyes, and DEATH will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." May this scripture give you comfort and hope in the ransom sacrifice of our LORD, Jesus Christ, and the promises of our HEAVENLY FATHER.

*Uncle Gary, Ferria and family,
Most of us hope when we leave this earth that we leave a lasting footprint that leads the way for a next, even more productive generation. Ms. Myrtle's kindness and example did just that. May she continue to live in your hearts as her next generation of grandchildren and great grandchildren make their marks in the world. May God keep you all at peace during this time of your loss and be comforted that she is at peace with her heavenly father.
Continued Prayers,
Natalia Thaniel and family*
