“ I am so sorry for your lost. Losing a loved one is never easy. The bible though gives us great comfort through the scriptures. At Rev 21:4, it states "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." How comforting it is to know that Jehovah God promises to do away with all of our pain and suffering.

“ My deepest condolences to the family of Nadeen at this most difficult time. Death was never a part of God's purpose for mankind, and soon he will end all sickness and death on the earth. Jehovah God created people to live, not to die, and one day soon his original purpose will be realized. No one can permanently stop the purpose of the Almighty, and very soon we will see our loved ones again according to the Bible. Daniel 12:2 promises that there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up. When Jesus was here on the earth he demonstrated on a small scale what he will do in the near future. He raised up many people from the dead; including his friend Lazarus and a little 12-year old girl. Imagine the joy of her parents when she opened her eyes again. The account says that they were beside themselves with great ecstasy. Mark 5:38-42

We would like to express our deepest sympathy for your lost. Nadeen was such a beautiful person inside and out. I never saw her without a smile. I know she was often sick but when she was able she made her way to church service and always had a kind word. The Word tells us to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord, she is now resting in the presense of the father. Be encouraged family in this your time of lose.
