“ Like others, I got to know Nadine Brown through her employment at the Babe Ruth Museum's Sports Legends Museum at Camden Yards. Whether it was in the Ticket Booth or the Museum Store, Nadine was always a pleasure. It was very easy to become friends with her. You could always count on Nadine for a smile and a hello. She loved to share stories about her family and hear about yours. She will be missed. Heaven got a good one. May her family know how much she will be missed and may God bless us with her being a guardian angel.

“ To our dear Nadine,

I had the honor of working with Nadine at the Sports Legends Museum and always called her, "Our Den Mother," Every time there was a problem, Nadene would say to me "Don't worry Mr. Z, I got this" and every time she always resolved problems no mater how small or large.

Many times she would come down to my office and we talk about life, family, the museum, and always had a good laugh at the end of our conversations.

She truly loved and had major pride in all members of her family. All I had to say to her was, "How's the family?" and she would get this big smile and proceeded to tell me about each and every member of the Brown Family.

I have lost two of my Sports Legends Family this year, Keith Wood and now Nadine. My heart is broken, Both can take major credit in making the museum a success.

I will always treasure the wonderful memories of both keith and Nadine.

We were a family.

RIP my dear friends.
