“ Good morning Angel,
I just got out of my Art class & I got a C on my paper only because my teacher graded harder than what he usually does. But I miss you soo much. There's not a day that goes by that I don't think of you. I love you soo soo much. Well I'm about to go to my music class and most likely go to sleep lol. So I'll talk to you later. :)

“ I'm back Grandma. I was just letting you know about Maxy (my car) today. That car then cut off on my on 50 during rush hour. It was funny only because I was with my room mate. I called Mommy to let her know but of course she kinda yelled at me lol but it wasn't nothing serious. But yea earlier I forgot to tell you about the car mommy and daddy bought. It must have slipped my mind. Well I'm about to call it a night. I Lovee you & I will write you in the morning. Goodnight my ANGEL :)

“ Hey Grandma, Its been almost 4 years since we all have been on here. No we didn't forget about you but as you can see we all have been busy.A lot has happened. But of course I'm going to start with me :). My first year of college was fun but it could have been better. I had my own apartment with my room mate Sydney. We both played basketball well she did because my coach barely gave me anytime and that's why I'm leaving Chesapeake for good.Now I'm going to BCCC to get my degree in Gerontology. I love elderly people now. We have a couple more additions to the family, but I'm let John and Krystal tell you that. The last time I been around here I was 13, that was so long ago. I still think about you everyday all day. Hopefully when I graduate from BCCC, I plan on going to Loyola to get my Masters in Gerontology. The family is going really good and Mommy and Dad is to. Karlo and MaKenzie is now 6 and Kamaar look like a grown man and he is only 13 lol. Time sure does flies. I just cant stress it enough of how much I miss you. I PROMISE TO TALK TO YOU EVERYDAY, just how I use to back when I was 13. My grades for my freshman year was okay but they could have been better but I'm working on it. The semester is almost over (Thank GOD) & I will finally move back home. The Eastern Shore is not for me lol. It feels so good writing to you again and trust me I will tell everybody to get back on and write to you. Oh yeah, Pop Pop and I are the best of friends. He does a lot for me and the family & he truly does miss you. & not to mention I have a new friend and his name is Jamel :) I'm quite sure you looked down and saw him around the family lol. Well Im waiting for my room mate to get out of class so that we can go to the mall and look for something to wear so I can go to the club tomorrow night. & yes I am going to be safe. But I'll talk to later on today whenever I get in the house. Love you Grandma

“ Hello Mommie, I know it's been a long time since I have been on your page(to leave messages that is).I miss you so so much,when I came to visit your grave this past Tuesday,I was very stressed but I got a lot off my chest.I kept saying to myself still,I can't believe that I am here.Here it is 14 months later and it still hasn't gone away.I just couldn't get over that here I am at a cemetary talking to my mother at her grave site.I love and miss you so much.I just felt so crazy standing there talking to you and it was all because of where I was.The kids are all doing fine.I am so proud of Christopher and I know you and granny are too.Krystal is holding her own and is doing a good job even when she needs help.She is also a great mother.Kanijah is growing so well and she is truely a handful but she is a very good baby.Kameron has matured in some ways and I can truely see the changes in him.All in all everyone and everything is good.Tracy and I went to Atlantic City this past saturday. We had a good time espically talking about the time you,Stephanie,Tracy and myself went.Already Kanijah is about to turn one and again the holidays are approaching.There is not a day that goes by that I don't think about you.You are constantly with me whenever and wherever.I just love you so much!I wish everyday that you were sill here and that I could talk to you.Well I am going to go so that I can drop Dad a line or two but in the meantime know that you are always in my heart. “ hey grandma, i know its been a while. you're always in my heart though. My schedule has been really hectic lately and i am really getting the feel for this cop gig. i know you're going to get mad but, i did good on my shooting today. i know how you hate guns but i have to have one. it is crazy down here, well you know already. Me and Jonnathan have been talking about you alot lately, we just like to reminisce about the funny times that we used to have at your house like the time you made me and him take showers 2gether and we were 18 years old. i miss calling you everyday and hearing your voice. talking to you about my problems that i thought were so big. i used to get steamed when you laughed at me, but i am learning that you were right. as you said "boy, u ain't seen nothin yet." u were right grandma. as you know, it's that time of year again and lauren is trying to be a jerk but i have really gotten better with my temper. i don't pay her much attention anymore. That Makenzie is a trip now grandma. If you could only see some of the things she does. Believe it or not, she actually favors you. We laugh at that all the time. My little angel is growing so fast. She is speaking full sentences now and sometimes I wish she wouldn't say certain things (laugh) but what can you do. She is so sometimey. We are coming UP ON THE HOLIDAYS AND IT IS NEVER THE SAME NOT HEARING YOUR VOICE AND THAT GIGGLE. I MISS YOU GRANDMA AND I WILL NEVER FORGET YOU. UNTIL NEXT TIME... “ HAPPY THANKSGIVING MOMMIE, I know that I haven't chatted with you on the computer in a while,however you were always in my heart and on my mind. I miss you so so very very much I sometimes just be in a daze.Everyone is doing well.Can you believe your great-granddaughter Kanijah will be turning one in a short time? It is hard to believe. It seems as if I was just taking Krystal to the hospital.I remember just the same as if it was me when I was about to have Krystal.Speaking of her we broke tradition this year for her birthday,we didn't go out to eat instead her father took her to eat.It wasn't the same anyway because Christopher was away at school and you weren't able to physically be with us.We had decided just yesterday that we would celebrate all of ours Krystal's mine and Kanijah's by going out to dinner when Chris comes home on break.I am sure that would be what you would have suggested anyway with Chris being away at school.Kameron is killing me with these projects and reports but I must say has really been handeling doing them and for the most part he does most of himself, Krystal and I give him little assistance when needed. There were a few times Krystal has done his reports and she would ask him "what was my grade",just as you use to.Christopher did good for the first semester and Kameron just the same for the first quarter. I am really missing you MOMMIE. This time of year still isin't the same but I know you would want us to do everything we would ordinally do if you were physically here with us.All in all everyone is doing well.I love you so much I will never find the exact words to describe the pain I still feel inside.We will be having Christmas at Krystal's this year.I know you would be so very proud of her and the rest of them.I really miss having my lap-top so I can log on whenever I want.I will talk to you later. Remember how much I love you and miss you always all the time. P.S. I will make sure I eat enough ham for you ok.##imported-begin##Baby Girl##imported-end##

“ Hi Mommie, I am here at work thinking about you as usual. I miss you so so much. I know I express that to you all the time but I can't help it. We are planning to do something on your anniversary but I just don't know what just yet, we're still deciding. I saw Bernard yesterday for the first time since we returned from Florida, he really looks good. He appears to be coping better however I am sure it is truly still very hard for him. He surprised us with tickets to attend a crab feast on August 1. I thought that was very nice and your favorite girl will be there, hosting at that. I know you are keeping Daddy in check and telling him that you are not for his foolishness. Now Grandma Knox can see first handed herself how Daddy messes with you. Tell Granny I miss her and I think about her all the time. Did you guys celebrate Jeri's birthday? I am sure you did. Kanijah turned 7 months yesterday, can you believe that. She is so precious. Christopher and I have orientation on Wednesday. I think he is really beginning to get excited. I PRAY and CLAIM that he will do great and stay focused and on task. I will also PRAY for me, how I am in DESPERATE NEED. I will talk to you about that later. Well I need to go out on the floor and do some things so I will be cchatting with you tomorrow when I return. Mommie always know how much I LOVE YOU. Please continue to watch over me and let GOD know that I need STRENGTH and GUIDANCE. I will also tell HIM too! Thanks for Everything. I LOVE YOU ALWAYS ALL the TIME. Your Baby Girl###imported-begin##Baby Girl###imported-end##

“ Hi Mommie, I duplicated our last conversation by mistake but that's okay.I forgot to mention that Christopher opened a savings account and he is really trying to understand when and how you pay bills.More so how much is he going to have to pay when he uses his credit card. Yes you heard me correct,because he is a college student, he will autically recieve a visa card.Krystal got a promotion at work yesterday.Great Jod! She will be a manager and will begin training very shortly.I know she will do great.I also know that you are very proud of her and Christopher.Make sure you let Daddy and Granny know about their accomplishments.My room is finally put together and all I have to do now is work on Kam's room.He has had a very busy and exciting fun filled summer so far.He hasn't really been home since school has let out.Just trying to keep you up-dated on what's going on.I miss you so very much and I think about you all the time.There are times I still think to pick up the telephone and call you.I read time really doesn't heal things it only makes you able to cope.I truely believe that.I know I will never heal from losing you and my forever wounds will never mend.A part of me is going to always be lost and sad and that is what I know and I have accepted living with that for the rest of my life.I am going to go for now but I will be in touch with you very soon. I LOVE YOU MOMMIE!!! Your Baby Girl###imported-begin###Baby Girl###imported-end##

Isn't He magnificent?I give Him awesome praise for you and my Cookie and our family because I don't know where I would be if God had not blessed me with you and Cookie. As soon as the house is complete I plan to get to know her a little better and teach her about you and how you lived for Christ.Mommy and Robert like my locks so tell them if God desires I will go to the hairdresser tomorrow and get beautiful.Time to meditate but if it's God will you know I will be in touch and see you when I get home. “ Hey Mommy, It's superbowl Sunday! U're team is in it AGAIN! The Ravens had a suck year! I'm sorry 2 tell u, but I have 2 go with the Giants. Not alot has been going on. Mostly school & work 4 everyone. Report cards came out. Jami did well. Justin had a hard time with a class or 2 last quarter. My interest lately has been the presidential election & this recession. I'ts pretty scarey. Jami is sitting here laughing @ me. She says why am I typing all this information because u already know everything I'm telling u. These kids are something. So much they remind me of u with their outgoing personalities. Well Justin is trying to take my car now 2 go 2 Jonnathan's. Speaking of which, Jonnathan is well & my grandbabies r precious. Little Jonn is adorable & Tenia is my heart. OK, gotta go cause I could go on about those 2 4ever. I LOVE U & MISS U~~ALWAYS & 4EVER##imported-begin##stephanie##imported-end##

“ Hi Thomas please tell mommy I love her and miss her.As usual I think about you everyday and I remember how you helped me prepare for mommy coming home with Jesus and you. I didn't understand the dream but in season God worked a miracle.Please tell Robert as I am sure you both already know that his brother Pat is very sick.Just like Robert he is very afraid but I always told Robert doing something to help yourself is better than doing nothing.We are very worried about him because God has a divine plan for his life and that plan can only be fulfilled by Pat so please continue to pray.God will help him he MUST help himself.Tell mommy that Karl and Tracy are mad at me because I spent the night with Kim. I did tell them but they wanted me to stay until they came home and then let them know.How about them apples? With that said I will give them a schedule of the nights I will not be with them, but that is so cute.Deanie so many people are praying for me and that is such a comfort because sometimes I don't know if I am going or coming but I will continue to trust God.Tell Sandra and Avon I love them so much and give Mama Rosie a kiss for me;and please hug Mrs. Hodge and Mae and Papa. By God's grace I am saved and that great grace will some day take me home all glory to God.Thomas I gotta do some work, but I will touch basis with you before I leave here today. “ Mommie, Stephanie and Tracy are trying to be a bother. They are 2 very jealous orange things because they are mad that Nece stayed the night over my house. They are 2 witches because they don't want to share and they know that I am her favorite even though I am not her Godchild. I am sure you know by now that our Patriot's lost and the Giant's won. We were all at Tracy's watching the game and feasting as usual. Krystal moved over the weekend, still close and Christopher is still searching for a job. Kameron is punish because of his report card. I need to inquire about Christopher's, and as for me, i'm coming along. I can't believe it's only 3 days shy of your 6 month anniversary. Lately I have been thinking how fast your birthday is approaching. Nece and I had a wonderful conversation Saturday night in the car. We were waiting for Kameron to finish in the barber. I am so happy I can help her cope with her losses as she was there for me(us). It's funny because I am use to her ministring to me and there are times I found myself ministring to her(excuse the incorrect spellings). I dont know the word as she does but I'm trying. Well I have to get back to pretending to work so I will be talking to you real soon. Please send my love to everyone and tell uncle Robert Kanijah needs a photographer. I LOVE YOU WITH ALL MY HEART AND SOUL. MISSING YOU ALWAYS Baby Girl###imported-begin##Baby Girl###imported-end##

I go during the weekend or one day during the week if I am off. Anyways it's funny Krystal mentioned that becaus she is always with me when I go and how I use to do you, throw stuff in the cart she does the same and guess who pays ME. Well I will chat with you soon Love you lots and lots. Baby Girl###imported-begin##Baby Girl###imported-end##

“ Hey Thomas I had a working lunch so I decided to take time out to hollar at you once again. I just left my office and went out on the floor, and I looked out the window of the greatness of Our Lord and I was in awe.From the 6th floor of my department you can see everthing the boats coming and going, buildings that Hopkins has torn down and are now rebuilding.I can also see Alex Brown & Sons, the Police Department and several other places my point is the view is very appealing.I can only imagine your view. Your new home already furnished with everything you'll ever need, no mortgage or rent or BGE Bills see how God constantly provides for us.Kameron has been asking lots of questions about death and dying and I am praying that the Holy Spirit will continue to help me answer him correctly.He told me that he really misses visiting with you and being with you and he is doing well staying in touch with God, but I am sure you know that.I am honored to be his Godmother and I pray that with God's help I am able to be some comfort to his soul.Sometimes when I write to you I immediatley go back to the site because I expect you to respond and in case you don't know losing you is extremely painful, but once more with God's great grace I will be fine.Be back soon gotta make a run.

“ {2-5-08}Hey Thomas tell mommy I love her.Each day I live I become more aware of my new life.I become so aware of what is and is not important and I give much honor to God for teaching me about spiritual things.In my earth suite there are voids that will remain empty, but deep in my spirit I rejoice because I know who I am who I belong to and where I am going. I am coming home , I am coming home. See you when I get there! All my love always and forever, Nece PS:Give Robert a kiss for me thanks.##imported-begin##nece##imported-end##

“ {2-5-08}Thomas I really do work however,I have much to share with you.The inspector is coming Thursday to take a second look at the wall and God willing work will begin on Saturday.Hold on Thomas someone just came into the office be right back.Back just ask God to give me wisdom and to bless my efforts as I trust He will.Tell Robert that his family misses him so much and I am so sad to watch them suffer, but I know God will fix their hearts in time and they will be healed.Tracy sends her love because her computer is acting funny. She didn't feel very well last night but I will continue to pray for her and again it's most difficult to see your babies suffer.I know God loves them more than I ever could and He will take excellent care of them. Each day I pray for them to be successful in the spirit and I believe they will because God is merciful, but I know I don't have to tell you that.I need to do clinic but that does not mean I won't touch basis with you before I leave so kiss mommy and I will chat with you later. “ hi mommie, i have missed you so much. i have been so upset that i haven't been able to talk to you, but the computer at work has been acting real crazy and i still have not gotten one at home yet. i have been going crazy not being able to communicate with you. well, i guess we need to play catch up. everyone is steadily coming along and doing a little bit better. the kids are doing alright. brianna and kamaar got their report cards and i am very proud of them. mommie they keep bringing these projects home and i just look at them like they are crazy because i don't know what to do with them things. you just don't know what i would do to have you back and not just because of the projects. i love and miss you so much, it is hard to beleive that it will be six months. it still seems like yesterday at times, but it puts my heart at rest just to know that you are in a perfect place with no pain and no illness and always able to be happy and smile and that is what counts the most so i am getting a little bit better with being selfish. right now it just feels real good being able to talk to you. i came up to the school to do a little bit of work and this was my opportunity to talk to you. well, as i know that you know the patriots was not able to do it, but i know that you are still proud of them. kamaar won a bet going for the giants. he will be mad if he knew i told you he went for the giants. kim and stephanie came over for the game. we had a nice time. we talked about you and what you would be saying out of your mouth and we all know what that is because you did not hold anything back about nothing. well, as much as i don't want to , i have to go and get these kids from school, but i promise you the i will be back in touch with you as soon as i can, even if i have to write down my message and get someone else to send it to you, i really hate to go. give every one my love and tell them that i miss them. give granny a hug and kiss for me. and you just never forget how much i love and miss you now and forever with all of my heart. so until the next time plenty of love, hugs , and kisses. xoxoxoxoxoxo ps. mommie can you please do something with kim because at the age of 37, she is still the biggest brat. “ Hey Thomas what's going on? I know you are busy about doing the Lord's work. Tell mommy I love her and give my Cookie a good sugar for me.I was working but physicians and patients are trying to get on my nerves so I told all of them "Go take a hike" so I have a minute before they start whining again.Stephanie is very special to me however, she is a turncoat.I told her that Tracy and Karl said I couldn't go to anyone else's house and she said she agreed with them, but as soon as I reminded her that I had a date to stay with her she quickly changed her tune.Thomas ain't that something? Please continue to pray for your siblings because Pam and Joyce are having a difficult time with you leaving.We are all grieving differently and we all miss you so just continue to pray.Tell Jesus thanks for healing Joann because she is coming along much, much better and I am so grateful!Today is grandrounds and sometimes that can be a headache but I claim victory in the mighty Name of Jesus so all is well.I am getting excited about getting the house fixed because that's all I ever asked Robert so as Diane would say "It's My Turn" and I will live this part of my life well and hopefully well pleasing to God.Tell Robert, mommy,Cooper and the clan I love them and to pray for me and I will see Y'all when I come home. “ {2-6-08} Thomas I am taking a chill pill here at the great Hopkins and I will explain later. Kim is working today I mean really working how about that? She said she was really tired. Did I tell you that if God spares me I will be going to Florida with the gang? I kinda of invited myself but nevertheless I will be going if all is well and I am getting excited about that too! Tell mommy and Robert for me. God has blessed us with beautiful weather today and tomorrow it maybe near 70. He sees and knows His people are suffering from the greed of the gas and oil companies so He is helping us along the way and I am so grateful. Chris may have a new job thanks to Katrina remember her? She's the lady at work who told me to tell you "HI" so if Chris gets the job we honor God for favor and we thank Katrina for being a humble and willing spirit. “ Hello Angel, Boy Mommie I am tired!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! between exercising and working, really physically working I am exhausted!!!! Yes I am trying to get fit and have the diva body. I also walk around the track and tonight I will begin tybo. I asked my dear sisters to join me but you already know what they said. Tracy just laughed and June Cleaver said she will wait until spring. I know for what. Right. Krystal didn't want to go to Tracy's because she said it just didn't feel right you being gone. Remember last year my children, you along with myself went to Christopher's favorite restaurant IHOP. I know you remember that too. I didn't go to Tracy's because I was really tired and to be honest I felt bad because I too thought about us being together last year and I was also sad. I know being with them would have made it a little better as it always does and Kameron truly wanted to go. He told me that this was the first year that he didn't eat panny cakes and I really felt bad. Speaking of him, he has a report to do for Black History Month and I am lost. He said to me the other day, as a matter of fact he called me at work and said mommie! guess what I did? He said he picked up the phone to call you to tell you about his report and his project for the science fair and realized he couldn't talk to you. Again I felt so bad for him. Christopher has his orientation today for the new job. First I give thanks to the ALMIGHTY and I also thank Katrina for looking out for him. Mommie can you believe that Kanijah will be 2 months old on Monday? I know you would just eat her up. Krystal is really doing a wonderful job with her. I told myself that even though we were busy again today I was going on your page no matter what. Well here I am and I am very glad and satisfied. I wasn't feeling it earlier. I am off tomorrow and for sure I will be visiting. Well it's almost that time and as usual I hate to stop chatting but I need to do the last rounds. I LOVE YOU SO MUCH!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! I truly MISS MY MOTHER AND MY BEST FRIEND. I know you are at Peace. Though I don't shed tears everyday, I am constantly crying. My pain is endless though my thoughts of you are happy. Always know that no one could ever replace you. Always and forever I LOVE YOU. Your Baby Girl###imported-begin##Baby Girl###imported-end##

Back. She is a turncoat because your babies and lots of other people are fighting over me how about that? It really is enough of me to go around so they need to chill!! I am mixed with emotions today because today is a blessed day for you and me. Today is the day of new birth in Jesus for you and I am happy for that and it's also the day you left me. Thomas why did you go? We had much to do and without my big sister to help me I feel sooo alone. I know you hear me with your spirit but I miss your beautiful smile and the kindness you gave to mommy and me. I rejoice in the fact that each day I get closer and closer to my new birth and I am grateful that God is giving me a chance to get my life in order. I serve a Mighty Good God for even in my suffering He is blessing me. Gotta go have lots to do I might get it done and I might not. “ {2-7-08}Thomas just doing my bible study and the topic is How to Rest as Jesus did. Scripture Matthew 11:25 it really is a beautiful word and I am blessed to try and keep that word. I really do need to meditate on that scripture because sometimes I don't know which end is up, or if I am going or coming. But when I come to my senses and realize it is not about me I smile and say "Father how Great Thou Art". That rest is for me because I am a child of the most High God. God encourages me to Be Still and let Me be God and I am learning to do that let Him be God in my life amen. Gotta go out on the floor be back shortly. “ {2-8-08}Hey Thomas please give Cookie a good morning sugar for me and tell Robert I love him. Just wanted you to know I am thinking about you and wish you were here, but that is very selfish. I know God will help me with that selfishness. I just finished Mabel's homework. I call Brianna Mabel because she is so old, she has an old soul and that's a beautiful thing. Thomas Tracy's children treat me like I am special and little do they know that I have asked God to richly and abundantly bless and keep them in their difficult days. God has great things for them to do and those things shall come to pass. Isaiah is so cute I just love his hair, but sometimes Tracy talks mean to him and I am right on it. I have not talked to the Diva or the Turncoat today, but you know I will hollar at you before the end of the day. Kiss Cooper and Gerri and love Y'all bunches and bunches. Missing you deeply. “ {2-8-08}Thomas these returns are off the hook so I decided to take a break and chill. Sometimes it's so much to read and process you know what I mean?Did you get Kameron's letter? He loves you so much and you gave him such a hard time, but thanks be to God that he overlooked that and loves you anyway.I kinda of have a busy week-end one of the ladies at church will take me out tomorrow and I think Sydney will have her shower on Sunday.I pray for Sydney and Krystal because I don't think they have the full impact of becoming a parent.That is a womb to the tomb deal and even at death it never ends.My prayer for them is that they will not forsake their hopes and desires and will allow God to use them to build up His kingdom. When I think about them I realize why mommy was like she was with me. Becoming a parent is SERIOUS business and may God walk with them both.God is faithful and He will see them through. I pray they have learned a lesson from this experience and enjoy their babies and learn to fellowship with God in a deeper way.Thomas I know heaven is so beautiful and my manison is grand so I'll see you when I come home.PS: Pray for me thanks.##imported-begin##nece##imported-end##

My point is he always blessed me but he had difficulty in receiving a blessing, but I am sure he has learned to receive now. “ Hello Mommie, I am at work this morning. I am taking time out to read all the messages I didn't get a chance to read due to the heavy work load. I know you don't want us to be sad but it is very highly impossible because we have lost so so much not having you here with us anymore. Lately I have been thinking about your birthday last year. I remember how we all came over your house to celebrate with you and how you were excited about the shoes Krystal got you and how we bought one of your favorite meals, chicken and biscuits from your famous popeyes. Although it was your birthday, you still made sure Bernard and everyone else had food to eat before you fed yourself. You should have been the one who had first dips. Mommie I also realize that although it was your birthday, for some reason it felt like it was something else special about that day. It's just a feeling I had and still have. For some reason you were the same but different and you had a glow that seemed unusual but good. I often think about all of last year, the whole 12 months. I always hoped that when it was your time to depart this world, you would be very old and you would have gotten a chance to ride on an airplane and take a vacation and do things again that you have enjoyed before such as going to Hershey Park and us traveling to Atlantic City again. I know GOD choose you because it was his will and you would have choose to follow his will however, I just wish you had more time here. Everytime I go to the bank, I think about why I am here. I wish I could say because I am making a deposit for you, although you have always handled your own business, I just wish for any other reason but the real reason. Most things I can adjust to but this, you not being here I can't. Well I am trying my best but sometimes my best becomes my weakness. I realize I just need and want you. I hope you understand as you always do. I LOVE YOU MOMMIE. YOU ARE ONE IN A MILLION. ##imported-begin##Baby Girl##imported-end##

“ Hi Angel, I am at work again and I just wanted to drop you a few lines. I MISS YOU AND LOVE YOU more than you can imagine. Sometimes I just feel the need of wanting to talk to you and it hurts so so bad because your not here anymore and you can't respond. Sydney's baby shower was yesterday and can you believe that PRINCESS DIVA DIAMOND is 2 months old today. I am so looking very forward to getting my lap top because I will be able to write to you 24/7 anywhere and anytime. We have decided to celebrate yours and Uncle Robert's birthday only this time I doubt if we have your famous chicken and biscuits from popeye's. WE will pass the pepsi around. Give the GINGER SNAP a great big hug and kiss for me and tell everyone I said hello and I miss them dearly. The time is quickly approaching for all of Christopher's activities for school. Can you believe it's his turn already? I don't know what I am going to do without your help. Well my time is almost up and as usual I hate having to say goob-bye. I just wish we were hanging up the phone saying good-bye and not this way. It is truly devastating. Why did EVE have to eat the forbidden fruit? Well I am going to chat with you a little later and always remember how much your loved and missed everyday. Good night Love Your Baby Girl

All of your girls are sad and they are handling you moving to heaven in a different way so please tell mommy to continue to pray for them. “ {2-18-08} Thomas this morning bible study was about death and how to handle it like Jesus. I so enjoyed it and peace came to me because Jesus Christ is soon to return and every fear and doubt will be put to rest. God is so kind to me that He is doing a work in me that makes me stop and think about what I just did or said had to come from Him because the flesh would do the opposite. I shared that because like I said this morning I too am preparing to come home each day I live. I am grateful to God for keeping me during this difficult time but I know He is in control and that He is faithful. God is showing me my faults and as painful as that is I am working on allowing that part of me to die so God can increase in my life. As I read the book of Revelation I am coming to realize that the world is growing darker but the church is growing brighter for the return of Jesus Christ. What a day that will be, what a day!! really cannot imagine heaven but I trust that God will take care of me just like He always does and rest will come to my soul. Pray for me miss you much and see you when I come home. Love Ya, Baby Sister##imported-begin##Niecy##imported-end##

“ {2-19-08}Hey Thomas please give Cookie a hug and kiss for me and tell her I am so lonesome for her.Please give this letter to Robert and no peeking. Dear Robert how I miss you my life is forever changed.I remembered you asked me what I wanted for our anniversary and I told you I wanted something that money could not buy I wanted a second chance with you, but God had other plans.I remember telling God I want to be able to nourish his weak body back to health through your great power, but You Lord had another plan.I remember telling God I wanted Him to wrap you up in His arms and give you peace and God did that.I wanted to fuss over you and prepare great meals and set a lovely table because you Robert deserve the best but what I had to offer was not good enough God had other plans.I often wonder what I did wrong in trying to serve you and I have asked God to forgive me for any ignorance because I only meant you good so you forgive me as well because I couldn't fix your suffering.The last 11 years of my life were very different because I had much to learn and little time to learn it.I had to learn a different way of sharing but you were always giving and that's part of the problem because you never wanted to receive only give.I had to learn that what I wanted or needed wasn't necessarily important, but what you wanted was all that mattered and more than that I had to learn to love you for the great man you were and not what I thought would make you great.In essence the last 11 years have been joyful and difficult and at times more than I could bear but once more God had a different plan.Thank you Robert for putting up with me even on the days when I was MOST unloveable you taught me much and I am eternally grateful thank you.Hugs and kisses, Colored Gal PS: God thank you for the man you blessed me with and I will see you both when I come home.##imported-begin##Nece##imported-end##

“ {2-19-08} Thomas I am back sorry about the delay but you know what it's like being human. Bible study was about how Jesus responds to death and the brother made a statement that I found extremely interesting he said he was sure that God did not just let us sleep when we come to Him. He said it's not in scripture but that's what he believes and I agree with that. God is too awesome for that. He also said you could probably rest if you needed to but your spirit is so ignited that you don't need to rest and that's purpose for rest right after we leave this world. MAGNIFICENT!!! I know you know and I will find out. Tell everyone I miss them and love them and to please pray for me. Love Ya, Baby Sister PS: See you when I come home.###imported-begin###Niece###imported-end##

“ {2-20-08} Thomas I wanted to share something with you about the last time we were together. Remember when I came to visit with you that morning? When our eyes met we both wept although I did not show my tears my heart was broken. I did not openly weep because I wanted to be strong for you. As I watched you suffer I kept saying "Deanie will recover because she is a child of the Most High God and He makes no mistakes". I told God at that point that I expected a miracle and I needed you whole. I wanted you to know that I so enjoyed serving you and I ask forgiveness if I failed you in anyway because you deserve the best. I appreciate the fact that you allowed me to bathe you, comb your beautiful hair, clean your glasses {and place them on your face} and then hold your face in my hands for a brief moment. Deanie thank you for a beautiful and humbling experience I will always remember that because you blessed my soul that day. I also wanted you to know that Robert stayed with you for awhile and just held your hand to try and comfort you and I am grateful for that. Did he share that with you? Please know that I love you and I always will you are a wonderful big sister and a faithful follower of Christ. Thomas please tell Lucy, Ricky, Ethel, and Fred I so enjoy the "I Love Lucy Show" and tell Barney not to make Sandra laugh to hard because I don't want her crown to slide off, and also give my Cookie a good sugar. Mommy I really tried to take care of you but I sometimes failed;it can be very difficult to care for someone who was always in control and always took charge no matter what life dealt her.Mommy you are a wonderful person and an awesome Godfearing woman.I cannot thank God enough for allowing me to be your baby girl and for you teaching me the great things about a God I have never seen but one who loves me inspite of my sin.Mommy when God gave you the task of being my mother I am sure you had many qustions and I know He supplied the answers because He is so faithful!Thank you for all the sacrifices you made and for teaching me how to be a lady.I know you are resting in the arms of God and I also know I will see you again because that is a promise from Him.Mommy remember when I visited with you and we would go outside and how you enjoyed the beauty of God? Remember we laughed at everything? Remember the times you sang to me and I to you?Mommy please forgive me for those times I missed the mark with you for in missing you I missed God.I remember not being able to come to you sometimes because Robert was bad and I would tell you how I was so sorry and I cried at your response.You would tell me "Niecy don't worry about me because God helps me".Remember?Even as I think about that statement my heart is so full.So once again Lord Thank You, Thank You for the awesome gift called mommy.Mommy see you when I come home. “ Hi Mommy, I know it's been a little while, but that doesn't mean I haven't been thinking of u. I'm sure u know that though. I am feeling a little better. Actually, the past few days have been much better. I hope u know I've been trying very hard. Each day is a struggle, but I've seen a small change. Especially w/little help from the doctor. Sometimes it's just easier 4 them 2 keep patients drugged. My other issue has been under control 4 the past few days as well. I've been exercising & walking too. I think that helps alot. I was blessed w/a great message on Sunday, & that's made me look @ things differently. Work is going o.k, kids r all doing well, & the days keep coming. I spent some time w/Denise Sunday, & talked w/Joann too. Haven't talked much w/Tracy or Kim lately. David called & sent a letter. He is o.k, but still trying 2 cope. Little David's birthday was last week. He is doing well too. I told him maybe he can come & visit again during the summer. Well I have 2 go for now. Remember how much I love u & miss u. Tell Granny I love her & give her a kiss. Tell everyone else hello too.###imported-begin###stephanie###imported-end##

“ hi mommie, no, i am not at home i am at work. the computer has been on the blink. not because of the kids, but because of something outside in the lines. just wanted to let you know that i am thinking about you all of the time. everyone is coming along. some days are better than others, but with you as my angel, i know that i will be alright. i have been a little stressed for the last couple of days, but i am trying my best to work on it. i have to get in touch with your sisters to make sure everything is alright because i haven't heard for them in a while, or your brother. i know that you are already on top of that though. tell everyone that i said hello and that i love and miss them. mommie, i look at your picture every day and i am so glad that brianna talked you into taking that picture because everyone knew how you felt about taking pictures and that is my favorite picture of you. just always remember that you are always in my heart and thoughts and that i love you very much. i have to go and try to do some work, so i will be talking to you real soon. plenty of love, hugs, and kisses. xoxoxoxoxo##imported-begin##tracy##imported-end##

“ Hello Mommie, Finally I am so happy and feel so much better now that I am able to write to you. We have been extremely busy at work it has been unreal. I think about you all the time and even though I talk to you from and through my heart I still feel the need to write you, it just makes me feel better. I love looking at your picture even though you didn't want to take it. Krystal and I are going computer shopping next week and by the way she has a job. Don't worry between myself and Nick we will be baby-sitting. Just yesterday Stephanie, Tracy and I were talking on the phone together. We sometimes do that and of course we talked about you. We laughed and laughed but still it was obvious we are still hurting. Without it being said, we still felt each others pain, however it doesn't stop us from talking about you and it never will. Tracy and I also talked Stephanie into going to Florida with us. This will be the first time all three of us vacationed together. Mommie you are always included in my conversations. Some how either you relate to the topic or I just make it your business but for some reason I feel I always make you relevant to the topic. I'm sure people sometimes say "what does Kim's mother have to do with this conversation". Your sister-in-law's mother passed away. Mommie please tell Granny to let the lady get through the gate and settled first before she ask "what was the problem with your daughter not caring for my child"? That's if Granny didn't stop her at the gate. You know your Ginger-Snap. Mommie I miss you so so so much I can't find the words to explain or express my emotions. I just know what my heart feels and it's not healthy nor happy. I am at work and my time is almost up. I will talk to you tonight before I go to bed. I love you and miss you indescribably. Always and forever Your Baby Girl###imported-begin###Baby Girl###imported-end##

“ Hi Mommie, It's me again.I forgot to tell you that Kanijah weighs 8pounds and 11ounces.Isin't that something. She is so spoiled and I know it would be much worse if you were here.She fusses at Krystal all the time and she loves to be held close to you.Nece sings to her often and I am sure you have had many conversations with her.Christopher has been accepted for two jobs and he wants to see if he can handle the both of them at a time.Kameron is still talking about working this summer and what he plans to do with his checks.Krystal is just beside herself that she has a job and just freely alters my schedule to her and Kanijah's convience.Instead of having dinner at Stephanie's house we all have decided to go out to have dinner(of course Tracy and I have to watch Stephanie with the bill).WE have to make sure we don't pay more than we should and the tip is split between three and not two(Tracy and myself that is).Just for this week I will be doing nights and evenings.You often asked me what my schedule was espically if you wanted me to take you somewhere,although you use to tell Krystal "your mother acts as if she is so busy".Yes she told me.Well I just wanted to drop a few lines and see your face.I also wanted to tell you how much you are missed and loved by us all.I am back at work tomorrow so until I return know you are forever with me and you are constantly thought of.Please continue to have GODS back in watching over all of us.Mommie I LOVE YOU.Thank You for Being A Wonderful Mother,Friend and Provider I will never forget what we have shared during my life with you. “ {2-27-08}Hey Thomas I had someone come and look at the back wall yesterday and I was impressed.He told me he would give me an estimate in a few days and he explained why and that's what I like.He went on to say that he could not do the work at this time because of the weather so everything is on hold until after April.He said he could do the work but the concrete would crumble and I would have MORE of a mess so I am praying I am making wise decisions for the house.Tell Robert to pray that all goes well on Palormo so I can get back to a normal life.Give my Cookie a good sugar and tell Sandra I love her and Mae and papa as well. Hopefully I will be able to get some of the girls this week-end to help me trash stuff and get it dumped God willing.Stephanie called me and told me she had a dream that I was pregnant but we both know that ain't happening.Poor baby but she'll be okay. She is also asking for me to make her some tuna salad remember how you used to like my tuna? I miss not making it for you.I just told God I love Him and I appreciate everything He's done in my life so please give Him a hug for me.Gotta go out to the floor but will holla at you before the end of the day bank on it.See you when I come home. “ Hi Mommie, Can you believe I am at work?No,what I mean is I am just arriving to work at 7:00p.m.I am doing a night shift.Yes I have lost my mind.Anyways how are you?AS if I don't know.What do I really expect when your living in paradise.Tell everyone I said hello and that I love and miss them all.I wasn't able to write you the last couple of days because I got a little busy at work so please forgive me.I don't get off until 3:00a.m.so I am going to do my best to stay awake.If you were here we would be talking on the phone.I really miss times like that along with everything about you and what you use to do.Kanijah is growing so good and needless to say she is spoiled rotten.I finally called Joann and I apologized to her.I just told her that I couldn't do it anymore and couldn't stand to see her in such a harmful and helpless situation.Though I thought about her daily and prayed for her,I still wasn't feeling good about me not talking to her.Now that I have and knowing she forgave me I feel a lot better and knowing she overcame her illness.Well I have to go and do just a little bit of work so I will be in touch with you real soon.I Love You and Miss You. “ Hey Mommie, Sorry I didn't get a chance to write back last night. I figured out of sight out of mind so if they didn't see me they wouldn't need anything. Well I am back at work right now. I got here at 11:00a.m. and I get off at 11:30p.m. I plan to visit Joann this weekend and take Kanijah with me. She wants to see her, last time she saw her was when she was first born. Please pray for me because I have some decisions I have to make and as always I want to do what's best. Christopher says he's not taking anyone to his prom and he has no idea of the colors he's wearing just yet. He hasn't mentioned anything lately about going into the reserves therefor i'm hoping that thought went out the window. I know if you were here you would be making your phone calls about who's coming up to help you spring clean and calling Krystal telling her she needs to come and clean your glass ornaments you kept so beautiful in the chest. Stephanie has that job now and it's still beautiful as ever. I have to go and catch up on some work, just a little bit but I will return chating with you a little later. Begin praying for me until I return. Love

“ Hello it's me, I am getting back to you from earlier. Really ready to go home and get into my bed. I am off this weekend so unless I go to Tracy's house I won't be able to write you. I really miss you. You use to tell me call you when I get home so you'll know I made it home safe whenever I work late. It will be time for me to go shortly, I just wanted to let you know that I LOVE YOU and I think about you all the time. It's a constant battle but I am still trying very hard to except that your gone. I know you are watching over me(us) but it's still no where near the same as if you were here physically. Time is going by so fast but yet so slow, sometimes it's so cloudy and at other times it can seem a little clear. I guess those are the times GOD is carrying me and you assisting him along the way. Well I don't want you to ever forget how much your loved and what impact you had in my life(and still do). Rest well MOMMIE and know you will never be forgotten. EVER. I LOVE YOU FOREVER AND EVER. “ Hello Mommie, First I want to say don't let orange thing#1(Stephanie)talk about me and my other 2 diva's.I know you were telling her to shut-up and leave us alone.I don't know why she think she's your favorite.Anyways enough about her,I know you are very happy to hear from me as well as I am happy to write you.I went to visit Joanne and she was very happy to see me along with seeing Kanijah,Kameron and Krystal.She appears to be doing great(Thank you Jesus)and getting around very well,still a little weak but I will settle for that than the way she was.Send my love to everyone.Kanijah will be getting Baptized in April sometime I think and Sydney's baby is due this month.Wouldn't it be something if she is born on your birthday.If so I know you would say that she is special.This coming Friday marks the 7 month anniversary of your death,WOW!!!!!!!!!!!! we are just over the 1/2 mark for it being 1 year.Just mentioning and typing the word death doesn't feel or sound right.I know it's only because I am talking about you and because of that to me, it just gives the word a different meaning.It is now 10:20p.m. and I don't get off until 11:30p.m.as you see another evening shift.That's okay atleast I know that I will be on time for work,barely but I make it by the skin of my teeth.Unfortunately I have to bring chatting with you to a close but you know I will be back in touch when I return on Wednesday morning so until then rest well espically since orange thing#1 thinks that I get on your nerves and remember that I LOVE YOU FOREVER and EVER and EVER and so on and on. “ {3-4-08} Hey Thomas please give my Cookie a good sugar for me and tell her I love her. Tell Robert I love him and miss him so much and that at times the sadness is overwhelming, but God is still faithful; and even when I don't feel Him He's with me. Tell mommy I paid her Vaughn Greene bill in full yesterday and give her a hug for me. The receptionist at Greene's and I had church because she too is a believer so it is good to be in that company! Tell Robert Bonnie is not feeling well at this time, but I am doing the little I can to help her. I understand why Robert had a hard time receiving but Bonnie and I talked and she understands where I am coming from so it's well. Please pray for Sharon because she is suffering with joint pain and tell Sandra to pray as well. Thomas I will never understand what you and Robert endured but this I know God was not having His faithful children suffer long. On that note I am happy and sad; happy that you are not suffering, but sad because in the natural you left me. But, thanks be to God for His promise because we shall meet again and we will never be separated I have learned that death separates us for a season and than no more hallelujah! Your little Kanijah is so tiny but her lungs are very powerful, and she looks directly at you when you talk to her. Don't tell Krystal but if God desires I will take care of her for a few days when we go to Florida. Kanijah and I need to know one another because life for me is moving quickly. Each day I stay here God is preparing me to come home and I don't take that lightly. I used to tell my husband that we needed to get our houses in order in the spirit and in the natural, but he did not understand that he does now. Guess I should get some work done but I will chat with you before I leave today God willing. Thank you for being my big sister and my friend love you MORE! “ Hey Mommie, I am at work and of all days I am orienting someone. She will just have to wait until I finish my business with you. Anyways the other day Kameron was taken to the hospital by ambulance because he fell while playing football at school. To make a long story short, he is okay and is his usual self. He said to me while he was waiting to be seen that if you were here, he knew that you would be right there with him because you are always there in an emergency and when there's something wrong. He keeps asking when I am going to take him to the cemetery and I told him on your birthday. I can tell that he thinks about you a lot and misses you enormously as we all do. I know he thinks about you a lot because of the conversations we have whether they are about you or not. I watched Kanijah last night because Krystal had to work and believe me Mommie she is a handful!!!!!! She is spoiled and already ROTTEN. Christopher is still thinking about going into the reserves. He also has accepted a job at Sams Club. He is truly doing his thing. As you would tell him "you go Christopher". I know you would be proud of all your grandchildren and you would keep encouraging them as you always did. Mommie I know that you will continue to look over all of us and as we promised you we will continue to look out for each other. I have to go now unfortunately I have to go and orient so I will chat with you later. Until then stay mindful of how much I love and miss you I LOVE YOU ALWAYS Baby Girl###imported-begin##Baby Girl###imported-end##

“ Hi Mommie, I didn't get a chance to get back to you yesterday because I ran out of time and remember I told you I was orienting someone. Well here I am back at work still orienting. I haven't been sleeping good the past couple of days, why I don't know but it has been very tiresome getting up early in the morning and having to come to work. Guess what I did the other day? I had just gotten home from work and I was putting my phones on the chargers and I said to myself "let me call Mommie to see what's she's doing and to let her know i'm home". That was my complete thought before I realized that I couldn't pick up the phone and call you. Boy did that take me back for a minute. My BOY BOY isn't a baby anymore however he will always be my BOY BOY no matter how old he gets. I remember as if it was yesterday him crying all the time and sleeping in the swing. Those were the days and now today I am a GRANDMOTHER. Oh how life changes in such a long period of time but yet so short, same as you. Being with you all my life for such a long time and in such a short short time you were gone. Just like that how life changes and what impact and affect it has on you for the rest of your life. Today is Uncle Robert's birthday so tell him I said happy birthday and don't you all celebrate to hard. I hope Nece is having a Blessed and Beautiful day although I know her thoughts are with him. Kameron told me the other day that he would like to attend Calvert Hall High School so that he can play football. The boy has big dreams and goals I am very lucky and proud of him for that. Krystal is very happy to be working again and seems to like it so far. Still talking about going back to school (thank GOD). Well I have three more months before my lease is up and honestly I am ready to move. I am going to go and get what I have to do out of the way (trust me aint much at all) so I can log back on. I will talk to you real soon. Remember don't party to hard LOVE YOU ALL Baby Girl###imported-begin##Baby Girl###imported-end##

“ Hey Mommie, I'm back.I told you that I would be in touch with you soon.I'm just having some down time so I decided to write you then I will look for some cheap air flights.I am getting a little excited about going to Florida,we had much fun the last time.Easter is just about here and that means school is half way over.Hopefully Kameron does get chosen to work the summer youth works program,that way he can stay busy during the summer while waiting for football practice to start and for me he can buy things he wants with his own money.I just wanted to drop you a few lines to keep my mind at ease and to see your picture,though I sometimes don't like to look at it because it still hurts.Well I will be in touch soon so stay tuned and don't rest to much because I need you to help GOD watch over me(us). “ {3-12-08} Hey Thomas yesterday was Christopher's birthday as I know you already knew and I tried to reach him to no avail. Please give my Cookie a good sugar and tell her I love her! Thomas sometimes I look at your webpage and send a message and go right back expecting to get a written response. I am not crazy because I know you are responding anyway just in a different form. I stayed overnight with Stephanie last Friday and she asked for tuna so I did fix that and I hope she enjoyed it. I see your picture everyday and I give you sugars as well I am just lonesome for you and mommy and Robert and our family but I know my time is coming. Tell mommy Kanijah is tiny like I was but she is growing strong. I am sure you know Palormo Avenue was in the news because the ROIDS still don't get the message about God's saving grace and love but it ain't over yet because God still has a plan. I will continue to pray for the police officer that he will heal well. Gotta complete clinic talk to you soon. Tell Cooper I love her and I will be sending her greetings real soon. Before you know it, it will be Kameron's Birthday. Now! can you believe he will be 14. WOW! I need to be living the life. Really to the fullest and as you say NO BABIES EITHER. However they will always be my babies. Tell everyone I said hello and give kisses to all. Give a special kiss to Pam from Kameron because he speaks about her often. Please just keep watch over all of us and please give my brother David extra care. Atleast Stephanie, Tracy and myself have each other to pick up the phone and call, go visit and what ever else it takes to cope with losing you. David is not at free will to do these things. Well I am about to get off, I am leaving a little early today. I know you are okay I wish I was. I don't mean to be sad but I can't help it. As I stare at your picture, all I can think is this is unbelievable. This is my mother, who is not with me anymore. I know it's just emotions but these emotions are endless. I hope one day I an accept you not being here with us anymore, so please help me know that my siblings and I will be okay. I LOVE YOU!!!!!!!!!!!!!! P.S. This will be a never ending story. “ Hi Mommie, It's me and I am back at work again. I am doing an evening shift and of course I am thinking about you. It's Easter weekend and I miss the decorations. Sandra would have eggs hanging from the bushes and baskets piled up waiting to be filled with lots of candy and junk. Oh lets not forget the famous egg dying. Remember how we use to walk around the table dropping eggs in the water because it has always been so many of us. Well nothings changed it's still the same if not more. Remember how you use to take us Easter shopping, first for the clothes and under ware then for the shoes. Remember how you use to wash our hair and Sandra would grease, press and curl it. Those were the days. I know if you were here you would have gotten Kanijah her Easter things and you would have told Krystal not to tell anyone as you always have. Did you see the palm I placed on your flowers? Krystal Christopher and Kameron did good coming to the grave site. Krystal even said so herself and finally Kameron got to come. I'm sure he is going to want to come for now on. Tell Granny that the woman's choir need her back bad. I went to 8:30 mass last Sunday and BOY OH BOY OH BOY! They need to quit! Remember you said so yourself. This is one of the days that I can't stare at your picture so I am not going to chat long. I know you understand. I will be in touch with you very soon. “hey sugar! no use in me asking you how are you huh? no matter what you are better than me on my best days. Dean it has been so long since I have written to you. Actually I haven't been on the computer at all in about two months. I can't say why, just haven't. Definitely haven't been too busy. I sure miss seeing your little short self. You know I wanted to say ass I just didn't want to offend anyone who reads this even though it is clearly addressed to you. Remember when you were here in the world we talked like that to each other-no problem. Miss you lady, I really miss you. Happy belated birthday to you. Did you all go out for your day or did you all sit at the big table in one of the many mansions I was told about and enjoy a nice dinner? ha-ha! Oh yea Dean, I am now grandma to the prettiest baby in the world. Little Raegan is gorgeous. It is just so odd to see Sydney with a baby. So far so good. I really get a kick out of seeing her nurse the baby. And speaking of kick I'd like to kick judys --- out of my house. I know I get on GODS nerve asking for forgiveness for the thoughts that go thru my mind. The devil gets very busy in my thoughts so I have to ask GOD to forgive me for the things that I want to do to her. I went to Good-Friday service tonight and I took William and Noah with me and a few minutes ago the three nuts A.K.A. jason, chucky and freddy krueger-jordon, will and noah just walked by me each with a cigarette in their mouths like nuts. Noah said they were pimps when i asked what they thought they were doing. They keep me laughing Deanie. They speak of you often when they are down here. They told me that they miss you too. I haven't seen anyone in the family. no one died lately thats why. And for anyone who reads that just know that that was not mean to say. That is the truth and for those that don't know me- I don't sugarcoat nothing. I tell it exactly how it is. I did see Sharon walking down athol awhile back though. I still have nece pictures of Robert. She called about two months ago saying she was coming but you know...this reminds me when you would say "nobody calls and tells me nothing and I would say the same" except now I can read your page and find out whats going on. wha-wha-wha-Ha-ha. sounds like I need a bottle huh. Just wanted to make you laugh. Okay honey I am going to go and knock my kids out right now. they are cutting up a little to much. I miss you and I love you like a fat kid loves cake.##imported-begin##debbie##imported-end##

“ Hello Again Mommie, It's very laid back here at work today. My work is almost finish (at least what I am going to do). I am really anxious to move because, I don't like living under someone. I'm not busy at work at all so I just thought that you would love and enjoy hearing from me. Today is Karen's birthday, I'm sure you are aware. Everyone knows that you always send birthday cards no matter who it is and where they live, in town or out of town. Kameron wants to play football again this year as usual but the boys within his age group are entirely too big. I am afraid he will get really hurt. He has yet to reach 90 pounds and will very soon be 14. Yeah I know. What do you think? He is too old to play for 10-12 again. I don't know but I do know that his feelings are going to be crushed and he is going to be heart broken. Well that's all for now. I will chat with you before I leave. “ Good Morning Mommie, Here I am back at work for 12 long hours. Not too many babies today, I hope it stays this way. I can't believe that it's April pretty much already. Yesterday I took Kameron to see about a summer job through youth works. He did great handling his business all by himself. I stayed with him, but when they called his name I didn't go up with him, at least not until he looked like he was a little confused about filling out the paper work. He was very proud of himself and told me "I didn't do bad for my first time". I really hope he gets chosen. He is looking forward to getting a summer job. Guess what? Kanijah is eating apple sauce and pears, from the spoon. She and her mother is TERRIBLE. Well my shift is just really starting so I must be visible. I will chat with you a little later okay. “ Hi Mommie, I know it's been a while and I am sorry.I have been tired lately for some reason and just been feeling like I haven't been sleeping well.Krystal and Kanijah has moved back home and she is something.She talks and talks from 3:30a.m.to 5:30a.m. She laughs and makes sounds to let you know she is not asleep.I miss you so so much.I can not believe it's April and you have been gone away from us for 8 months,still just doesn't seem real.I am beginning to learn how to deal with you not being here anymore even when I have to remind myself that your gone on ahead,however there are several times that I still do and say things as if you were still here.I will never get over you or the fact that you are no longer with me(us)It's just as I said I am learning everyday how to live again.I have to always remember what you have said and would say and what you would advise me to do.I will never ever be complete again and that too is something I am learning to deal with everyday.I know it is going to take time but it's a start and I know that this is what you want us all to do.Christopher's prom is May 9,and I am dealing with that.Kameron told me the other day that he hopes that you are okay.He randomly says things to me often about you and this is one of the ways I know he thinks often about you.He really loves you and misses you as we all do.I know my baby boy and you had and still has a special grand mother,grandson relationship.Well it's that time and I will be leaving in 30 minutes(yes i'm at work).I am back the weekend and of course I will chat with you more when I return.Remember how much I love you and miss you.Please continue to watch over all of us. “ Hi Mommie, Guess what!! finally got my laptop. The only thing that's missing is your name plate. It use to set on top of the computer and that was the first thing I saw walking in the house. I miss you so much. The grave site looks very good now that they put the mulch on top of the spaces. I know it's been 8 month but I still can't believe that I have to come to a(your) grave site in order to visit you. Time has gone by so fast but yet so slow. I remember how you grabbed my hand, pulling me to you and saying thank you early early on before you got very very bad. You didn't have to say thank you because that was my job. I realized at that moment you were very sick, I just didn't know and want to face that you were ill needless to say very very ill and the chance of you going on ahead so so fast just wasn't an option for me to think that was very much possible. I often think about how you were pulling me toward you as you layed in the bed and I didn't move but yet I felt you pulling. I hope you forgive me and know I was just afraid and I wanted things to be like old times, just simply saying "alright I will see you so and so or alright I will call you later". I just wish that we all had a little more time with you so that things could have gone back to the way they use to be for a little while longer before they had to be this way. I know Either myself or anyone else had control, I just wish things were very much different. I know that this was GODS will and that you wouldn't question his will because you have always trusted and believed in him. I honestly depend and rely fully on my faith to get me through all of this because it's not easy. This is truley a test of my strength and faith, however I know GOD loves me because he is and has been my ROCK and COMFORTER. We are having game nigh at Joann's house on Saturday. I surely will miss your presence and you giving me pennies to put in the pokeno cups and putting up for me when I ran out of pennies or ran low. I know you will be with us in our hearts. I will play your card for you as well as playing my "JACKS", you know that's my card. Well I have to get ready to go and now that I am back in business with having my laptop again, I can talk to you at anytime(yes). I LOVE YOU VERY VERY MUCH AND I MISS YOU JUST THE SAME. “Hi Mommie, I started writing you at work the other day and someone erased everything. I was so upset that I let it get the best of me and didn't log back on. Well here I am again. I am home just got finish cleaning up the kitchen and washing the dishes from cooking and eating dinner. Kameron's report card was good however not as good as he normally get but still better than lots of other kids his age i'm sure. Since Krystal and Kanijah has been back we have had many discussions about you and talked about you just in conversation even if it's brief or just reminding each other things you use to do and things that happen that reminds us of you. She revealed to me that she was angry with you because she said she felt that you had given up and you would have made sure that if it was someone else you would have made sure that they would not have given up. She talks about how much you use to stay on Uncle Robert and how you would tell him what he has to do. We also talked about how she went to chemo a couple of times with us and the time we walked up lexington market to get shrimp salad sandwiches. Lots of times I find myself rewinding back to day one and remembering day by day step by step of everything and I MEAN EVERYTHING. From May 27, 2007 thru and including August 7, 2007 and the days after of planning and preparing for something I never imagined so so soon and so very critical to my LIFE. Christopher's farewell is May 30th and his graduation is June 1st. It will be so different without you being there and I know this is the one thing that he will miss and it will be on his mind therefor I ask GOD to let him enjoy his great accomplishment and know that GRANDMA-DEANIE is with him and she too see him and is very proud of him. I ask myself what could I have done to help you? Here we are approaching the time again of all the days and nights spent wondering why you. These next several weeks and next few months will be very much uneasy to cope and deal with. I will try to take it day by day and trusting in the LORD to strengthen me and guide me. I had to write you and get this off my chest because being able to write you and tell you what's on my mind makes me feel a little better. If I make an error excuse me Kanijah is helping me type(smile). Well I am going to go and take a shower and make

Kameron get out of my bed and give Kanijah to her mother. I will chat with you tomorrow. Remember how much I love you and that will never ever change. I LOVE YOU MOMMIE!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Me Baby Girl###imported-begin##Baby Girl###imported-end##

Krystal had a jeans skirt on her and a white top with the word "Cutie" across her chest. Thomas Kanijah will talk to you and she is so cute. I hope to teach her of God's greatness and love. I brought her a few bible stories and told Krystal she is responsible for reading and explaining them to her if I am not around. Tell mommy I love her and miss her so much and give Robert a kiss for me it's okay because you are both perfect now. Tell Fr. John "Hello" as well as everyone else. I had Kanijah on Friday and she is a wiggle worm she does not like to be held, or maybe it's me. She fussed a little but I started to sing the Lord's Prayer and she started to actually listen glory to God. I will keep in touch with David as much as possible and continue to pray for him and Tyrone, and Courtney. Palormo is coming along bit by bit and I hurt my back lifting so I need to be careful. I need to remember I am now a senior. Please give Babyboy a good sugar and Cooper too. Will chat with you before the end of the day. See you when I come home. “ Hey Thomas remember how we used to talk about God and His goodness and I would tell you God is all I have? That is such a true statement don't misunderstand I know I still have family but the Lord I love supersedes everyone. It is so wonderful to know God for yourself isn't it? I miss you asking me questions about God and the bible so who will teach me now? You will always be a faithful spirit and I thank God for that. You have touched my life like no one else could and I will always give God praise for that. Since you left (you, mommy, and Robert) I find myself thinking about the things that meant so much to us. Remember how we used to dress mommy {my Cookie} and how you always wanted to help Robert? Remember how you told me you would talk to him when he didn't do his part to be healed? Only a God loving sister would do that thank you. Gotta get ready to put clinic in place if God desires I will chat with you tomorrow at work if not we will make a date in heaven. Your place or mine? Love Ya, Nece###imported-begin###nece###imported-end##

I will continue to pray for him and ask God {hold on it's the phone} okay I'm back to give him the strength to go on. God still has a plan for him and he can't leave until that plan is carried out. He told me that you were a great lady and how the two of you met. He also told me what you would do to him if he ever tried to harm you {smile} you go girl. Please tell everyone I love them and miss them and don't forget to tell the Hodge Family as well for me. Will be in touch later on today until then rest in the care of God. “ Hello Mommie, I am so sorry that I haven't written you in a while,there's really no excuse.To be honest I started writing you yesterday at work and again someone erased my page,needless to say how angry I was and of coarse in the midst I got busy.I have been getting Christopher ready for his prom and helping Krystal out with Kanijah and of course my routine with Kameron along with working(I did have a few days off).Everything is comming along.Christopher is waiting to hear from U of MD.Eastern Shore.He decided not to go in the reserves however he was thinking about the National Guard.Krystal has picked up a part-time job at popeyes.She and I was just saying the other day that you would have her bring you biscuits and chicken everytime she work.I know I mentioned before how much we talk about you.Though I haven't written you,I am always thinking about you and wishing you were still here.This is just part of my everyday thought and wish.Kameron,Tracy,Kaamar,Karl and myself went to the wrestling match(backlash)last Sunday night.We had a good time.Remember how you use to order the wrestling events for us and we use to all come over to watch it together(but never paid you for them).I just had to write you before I went to bed.I know that I would not have slept good if I didn't write you before I went to bed.I am going to see the play THE COLOR PURPLE at the Hippadrome on May 10 and Tracy is having a Mother's Day cook-out on that Sunday.There's a lot of events coming up and it will keep us busy,however we will keep you informed of everything.Christopher is not taking anyone to the prom and Justin didn't go to his prom.Well again I had to write you before I went to bed(it's 1:47a.m.)and tell you the latest along with the upcoming.I can not believe that it will be 9 months for you.I know I say that all the time but the closer it get to being a year it's just so very unbelievable.It truely sounds wierd and unreal when i'm speaking and saying "my mother is deceased".It's so horrible to say it and it feels so crazy.I am amazed that I actually have to speak those words WOW!!!!!!!!!!!! Well I know I said I was going to bed about 10 minutes ago,i'm really going so I can get up and fix breakfast in the morning.I love you MOMMIE and again I am sorry I didn't write you for a few days.Know that I am always thinking of you

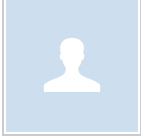

*no matter where I am or what i'm doing.I will talk to you real soon
Good Night and rest well.I MISS YOU SO SO VERY MUCH!!!!!!
ALWAYS AND FOREVER LOVING YOU Baby Girl P.S.I am going

“ {5-5-08}Hey Thomas what happened? I think I erased your first message by mistake.Just want you to know I miss you and love you so much. Give my Cookie a good sugar and tell her I love her. I did not have a good night last night, but God was there for me as usual. I am very, very tired and lonesome for all of you but prayer and the strength from Almighty God will carry me through.I ran into Sally yesterday and she told me that the Millennium was sold to another company and the company is MOST unfriendly.She spoke very well of mommy and how we cared for her and now my Cookie is swinging on a cloud. As I was walking to my car I said to myself as soon as I get to Plaormo I am going to call Thomas to let her know what Sally said.So separation is very, very difficult but God will help me. Thomas remember how you helped me pick out the favors for my wedding? And how we decided to get the different shades of peach flowers for the tiny champagne glasses?And remember how Joann told you to send out the invitations because you were the housewife and you had more time? Remember how you told Avon he needed to get in touch with Robert and me as soon as possible to go over the menu? Thomas you are such a wonderful big sister and these precious memories help keep me grounded.Thank you for loving me!Tell everyone I miss them and love them sooo much. See you when I come home. “ Hello Mommie, I have been in such a mood lately and I have tried to ignore it but I can't because I have been feeling really tired and now I am feeling as if I can't get a good nights sleep.Honestly my mind and my heart has been very troubled and this is why i'm sure I have been feeling this way.I feel like writing you is not good enough anymore and I know majority of this is comming from this time of year.As we all know this is May and this is the month we all had to face the reality of the confirmation of your terrible terrible illness.Though it was at the end of the month Memorial Day weekend,it's still so very hard because we know that-that exact time is quickly approaching and needless to say how we all remember everything as if as it was just yesterday.I had a lengthy conversation with Stephanie earlier today and it wasn't easy talking about things.I have recently just began learning how to live and and accept life without you being here with me(us) anymore and now I feel I am back to square one.I feel as if I am re-living everything over again just without your presence.I know it's valid that I will never accept your death,it's just as I said I have learned to live without being able to see you.That alone KILLS ME ENOUGH.It's still the pain I can't describe.I just know that I will never be complete again nor will I ever heal 100 percent.Just can't see it.I know you would say to me "THIS TOO SHALL PASS",but we're talking about you mommie.A wound that will never ever heal,A heart that will never ever mend and a soul that never feels cleansed no matter how much you weep.6 months today since Granny's death and 2 days away from it being 9 months since your death.I have been very depressed and have tried to fight it.It is so hard trying to understand WHY.I ask WHY for everything.Espically when I don't understand or know the reason(s).It is 11:46p.m.and I couldn't sleep and had to log on to your page hoping I would find peace and hoping to get sleepy.It's not working just yet.Christopher is just about finish getting what he needs for the prom and by the way he is taking a date.Have no idea who this one is.I know if you were here you would have helped make sure that he has what he needs.That's just the type of GRANDMOTHER you were.I told Tracy that she needed to participate in her graduation.I know you would want her to and I will be there representing(on time).I am so ready to go away,I can't wait.I think i'm feeling a little sleepy.Maybe I can sleep instead of being restless and uncomfortable.It is now 12:21a.m.and I am sitting here yarning,that's a good sign.Mommie I just want you to know how much I LOVE AND CARE ABOUT YOU.I MISS YOU SO VERY MUCH IT HURTS.I wish so much if only things can go back to the way they use to be.Mommie just know I thank you for being such a strong woman and teaching me to be strong.I LOVE YOU MORE THAN WORDS CAN EXPRESS. I remember 5 months before Jesus came for you, you were always overjoyed with little things and so very, very grateful.I remember how happy you were when I would give you a small gift or when we would embrace.I remember how tears welled up in you when I would sing with you and you always said "Thank you. WELL, THAT'S ALL OVER AND DONE WITH BECAUSE SHE GOT IT TOGETHER AND PASSED THE ONE TAHT REALLY MATTERED. I KNOW THAT SHE'LL FIND A GOOD JOB BECAUSE SHE WILL CHECK WITH YOU BEFORE SHE TAKES ANY OFFERS. YOU KNOW I'M NO GOOD WITH THAT KIND OF STUFF. I'LL JUST TAKE THE BACK SEAT AND OBSERVE..LOL. I AM EXTREMELY PROUD OF HER. ASIDE FROM THAT EVERYTHING IS GOING FINE. JONNATHAN IS BACK ON THE BIKE AND I AM SLOWLY BUT SURELY LEARNING MY NEW BIKE. MAURICE FELL ON 695 LESS THAN A WEEK AGO BUT FORTUNATELY HE WALKED AWAY WITH ONLY ROAD RASH. GUESS WHAT, ME AND LAUREN DECIDED TO GOVE IT ANOTHER SHOT. I REALLY MISSED HER AND MAKENZIE. SPEAKING OF THAT LITTLE GIRL, SHE IS GETTING SO BAD. HER AND MY MOTHER GO AT IT. IT'S SO FUNNY. LAUREN CAN'T DO ANYTHING WITH HER. WHEN I LOOK AT HER I SEE YOU WITH THE FACES SHE MAKES AND THE WAY THAT SHE BOWS HER HEAD. IT MAKES ME SMILE. WELL, I'M NOT GOING TO MYRTLE THIS YEAR. I WANTED TO GO SO BAD BUT WORK IS GETTIN IN THE WAY ABD YOU KNOW THAT I HAVE TO PRIORITIZE. I'LL JUST GO NEXT YEAR. I MISS YOU VERY MUCH GRANDMA. I SEE POP POP ALOT AND ME AND HIM ALWAYS FIND OURSELVES SITTING AND LAUGHING ABOUT THE THINGS THAT YOU DID. THINGS TAHT ONLY YOU COULD GET AWAY WITH. i LAUGH BUT THEN I GET SAD BECAUSE THE REALITY IS I'LL NEVER WITNESS THOSE MOMENTS AGAIN. BUT I GET MYSELF TOGETHER AS YOU WOULD SAY AND REALIZE THAT MEMORIES LAST FOREVER AND THAT YOU ARE ALWAYS WITH ME. OHH TRUST ME I KNOW BECAUSE SOME OF THE STUFF I DO I NEED SOME GUIDANCE. I KNOW YOU HATE THOSE MOTORCYCLES BUT I JUST WANT TO THANK YOU FOR TAKING CARE OF ME THUS FAR. I KNOW THAT YOU HAVE

BEEN GOING TO THE LORD AND PUTTING A BUG IN HIS EAR FOR ME FOR ME, ASKING HIM TO PROTECT ME. I'M AT A POINT RIGHT NOW WHERE I'M SCARED GRANDMA. JOHN HAS WENT DOWN, MAURICE WENT DOWN AND I'M WONDERING IF I'M NEXT? AM I GOING TO BE AS LUCKY AS THE BOTH OF THEM? THAT'S THE TYPE OF STUFF I'M THINKING BUT I LOVE TO RIDE SO I PUT THAT ASIDE. I MISS YOU SO MUCH GRANDMA. I'M NOT AS SAD ANYMORE BECAUSE THE OLDER I GET THE MORE I REALIZE THAT YOU ENDURED SO MUCH AND THAT IT WAS TIME FOR YOU TO HAVE A LITTLE VACATION. I GET SAD WHEN I SEE POP POP THOUGH. HE IS STILL HEARTBROKEN AND HE MISSES YOU DEEPLY. WE TAKING CARE OF HIM FOR YOU THOUGH. I JUST WANT YOU TO KNOW GRANDMA THAT I AM STRIVING TO BE ME BEST AND TO DO MY BEST. I KNOW THAT YOU'RE WITH ME AND WITH THAT ASSURANCE I CAN DO ANYTHING. UNTIL NEXT TIME..... I LOVE YOU. “ Hi Mommie, I was thinking about you as usual. I am sorry I didn't get back to you the other day, so much has been going on and I am just trying to hang in there. For starters HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY. I know that I am a day late. Christopher looked so so good for his prom, I know without a doubt that you were smiling heavily down on him. He was just TOO clean. As usual we were all there to give and show much support. I know that he really missed your presence being there. We were out at the grave-site visiting. We held it together and I know for a fact it was only through the grace of GOD and us being there together. We also visited Granny's site too. We had a great time at Tracy's house yesterday. Mommy your girl (Debbie) is so crazy. The kids are doing good and as for me, as usual stay trying to keep my head above water. I miss you so very much and I wish every day that you were here with me (us). I speak about you all the time no matter who it is and where, regardless of what the conversation is about you are a part of it. Kanijah is 5 months old now and you can see her ATTITUDE and believe me I will definitely have that little princess in check. WITHOUT A DOUBT. Christopher wanted to come to the grave-site yesterday but he got off too late and the gates were closed. I want you to know that you are always in my everyday thoughts and I just wish I had more time with you. I LOVE YOU MOMMY. YOU ARE THE BEST AND I HAVE SO MANY MEMMORIES OF YOU THAT WILL LAST A LIFE TIME. Please continue to watch over all of us. I am about to go to Tracy's for dinner so I will chat with you soon. Remember how much I LOVE YOU!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!and MISS YOU. Forever your baby girl. P.S. Krystal took your place with the PEPSI'S. Thinking about you as usual and wanted to see your face(although it hurts my heart).I am missing you and it bothers me all the time.Don't mean to sound so sad or depressing but it's the honest truth.It's almost that time,Krystal and Kanijah will be leaving to be in there own home.I have gotten so use to them being there I am going to miss them.Kanijah is always smiling and playing.She is growing so good and she knows Kameron and me. I believe she will miss Kameron and I just the same and so will Krystal.She probably would not admit it. Sometimes I ask her just as I ask myself who is the baby YOU or Kanijah.Kameron will miss Krystal too.He wouldn't admit it either atleast not right now and then again he doesn't have a problem expressing himself or his true feelings.I just wanted to chat with you for a minute to let you know what was on my mind and to tell you how much I MISS YOU. Today is Sunday and on my way to work this morning,I was listening to some of the hymns that Granny would listen to on the radio on Sunday mornings while preparing breakfast and getting ready for church.I gave a shout out to her so let her know although I am sure she heard me(knowing her).I am going up Joann's today for dinner(SHHHHHHHHHH) only between you and I.Nece may go,probably will,she is cooking fried chicken.I don't have to go to Tracy's today.At least I can go to Tracy's because Stephanie never invite me over for dinner however Tracy don't invite me either,I just arrive. There were plenty of times we made a meal out of nothing but GOD supplied us with what we needed inside her cabinets to make a meal.I can't forget the little things that GOD himself do to remind us of his FAITHFUL LOYAL and KIND WAYS that HE as our LORD provides for us.ALWAYS,all the time.I know all of you who have gone home has testimonies and are witnesses.Well I have to go and do some work therefor I will chat with you later. “ Hi Mommie, It seems that some days I can look and stare at your picture and other times I can't. This is one of the times I can. I know it sounds strange but I think it's because there are times I feel I need to talk to you about things and whats going on with me and I know that this is one way I can talk to you other than conversating with you through the spirit. You have always listened to me and gave me input on everything. I know I can talk to others but it's not the same as talking to you. I wish I could borrow you to talk to you and for many many other reasons. I have had a headache for two days now and I know it's from stressing. I sit and find myself thinking and wishing about things and saying "if I can only make things different". However I realize some things you just don't have control over. Well I know it will be okay, just don't like stressing. I am at work and I am not feeling being here. I am so missing you. I will have to chat with you a little later on. “ Hi Mommie, I am sitting here at 10:25p.m. with Kanijah on my lap.I was packing up some things and as usual she felt I wasn't giving her the attention she felt she deserve.She is a little fussy because she has a little cold and she is cutting some teeth.She holds on to the pacifier now and takes it in and out of her mouth whenever she feel the need too.I'm sure as you are aware,today was Justin's birthday.Stephanie and her family and Kameron and I went to pizza hut.It was nice and of course we had many laughs.Joann is not feeling well,she is having problems with her foot.Johnathan told me tonight that I have hair just like you.I thought that was cute,better yet "that's cute",as Tee-Tee would say.Well it's late and I am getting sleepy so I will talk to you tomorrow okay. I LOVE YOU MUCH Me Baby Girl###imported-begin##Baby Girl###imported-end##

“ Hey Thomas I love you! Please give this letter to mommy and no peeking. Dear mommy I miss you so much! This has been a very trying week for me but I know God and you are helping me to get through. Mommy I am very tired and rest does not come easy for me because my soul is so full I don't know how to turn it off. I know I will never rest until I am with Christ and then my heart will be at perfect peace , but until that day I have to continue. Mommy I remember how you used to hug me and that beautiful smile. I remember the wisdom you gave me even in your sickness you blessed me. I remember how you laughed at Robert when you two danced and how you just giggled when you would look at him and he would be sleep. Mommy those thoughts bring me joy but still I miss your beautiful face. I am doing somethings to help myself like I will have a new bathroom at the end of next week God willing, and if God allows me I will buy some new clothes before long. But, dear one those hings are temporal. Please don't misunderstand I am so gretful that God is affording me these gifts but my heart is fixed on those things that will last. Mommy the more I go to bible study the more I am learning about coming home. Mommy I have to go but I will be in touch real soon thank you for being an awesome woman of faith. “ Hello Mommie, Please don't be mad at me!! I know it has truly been a while but always remember I am always thinking about you even when I am not logged on to your page. We have a lot of catching up to do. First I want to thank you again for instilling in me the importance of having a family and taking care of my own (everything that GOD has blessed me with). Well for starters, Christopher's graduation was great! He was so proud and big Chris and I along with everyone else was proud too. After the graduation we went out for lunch just as we all did for Krystal (only we went for dinner). We had a good time, from our side it was Nece, Bernard, Krystal, Kanijah and myself and from Chris's side it was a few of his cousins one who graduated herself that same day and of course big Chris. We went to Moe's seafood restaurant and the food was good. Next, I am just about finish packing, everything is all boxed up and ready to be carried out. Krystal's new home is cute and everything seems to be coming along and Kanijah has adjusted very well. I know she really misses Kameron and me as we miss them just the same (Krystal won't admit it). Next, big Chris and I are helping Christopher to make sure he has everything (papers and fees and deposits) in on time, so far so good! He has a parent and freshman orientation on July 16th at the college so I will be attending and I believe Krystal wants to go. Can you believe Kameron will be the big 14 tomorrow? WOW!! I am going to send David a father's day card, he probably think I forgot about him. I hope not. By the way we talked to our other brother Val, he is doing good. I have to tell you about our father but that will take some time so I will have to talk to you about him when I am home and can take my time. Sharon had her big 50th birthday celebration last Friday night and it was very nice. Joann and Nece came along and hung out can you believe that one????????????? OH WOW! But hold on Sharon sang for everyone! BOY OH BOY OH BOY BOY BOY mmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmm! Stop laughing so hard, it's still more I have to update you on. Well finally Tracy and I talked to Towanna Bravette and Saron and they had no idea about you passing. It truly was a heartbreaker. They all came down this past Saturday with their kids minus one. We had a good time laughing and joking, most was about you and things you use to do *and say. They stayed all day and guess what we went to visit big Bravette. WOW! Well it's picking up a little here at work so I will finish updating you on everything later when I get home. I LOVE YOU.

“ Hello Hello Mommie, It has been some time WOW!! am having a little time because everything was happening all at once. Me moving, Daddy passing away and going to Florida. It truly was too too much but I handled it and still trying. This is my first day back to work since vacationing and do I want to be here OH ---- NO! We had a great time and honestly I am ready to go again. I miss talking to you. I thought my lap top was going to be ready but the phone company really messed me up so now I have a little wait ahead of me and they told me I could keep the same number only to find out when the technician came out, I had to get a new number therefore I have to get a new work order that set me back. Have you and Daddy been talking about me? I am sure you have. I miss the both of you so so much. I can not believe it will be exactly one year next month. What am I going to do? I asked you the same question last year when you left and I still don't have an answer. Well I will continue to wait. I am going to go for now but I will be in touch very very soon. “ Hi grandma, I am sitting here with Autumn and we were just reminiscing about you with pop pop. I haven't talked to you in a while but i've been extremely busy. I had to resign from corrections because me and an inmate got into it and I handled business. Me and my temper you always warned me about. Well that opened up the door for me to go to Florida so you know I went. I enjoyed everybody but I felt so empty at the same time. My heart is missing. Still after almost a year I feel incomplete without the phone calls and the visits. I've been trying to get a grip but I always feel like i'm going to cry. It hurts a little but i'll see you someday. You know I always need a favor. Can I borrow 20 Dollars...syke..lol, i'm just missing you. At this time in my life can you just watch over me, I need you to just keep me safe. I'm dealing with a little bit, U probably already know and I'm about fed up but I have to keep pushing. Down here Autumn and MaKenzie keep me chugging forward. I am still in school and I'mma get me a pilot job here in the next couple of years, tha's a promise that I made to you back in 1998 that i'mma still keep. Just think at 35,000 feet i'm just that much closer to you. As far as the bike, you know I can always use a little protection, thanks so far. Grandma, I have fallen in love with Autumn. I really think you would like her. She makes me happy. I've been seeing her since before you left last year. It's been almost a year and we're happy. She keeps me in check, and you know that's hard to do the way I go off the handle. Also, Keep an eye on Jon grandma. He has so much on his plate right now and he's hurting at the same time. Please help him through it. Let him know that everything will be alright. He is really unhappy right now and he almost seems lost sometimes. You know he's like my third heart...no homo..lol so I really want hime to push through these hard times. I talk to hime long and often and I am confident with a little help that he'll be fine. Thanks again for watching over Kenzie, t.t. and Jay J amd keeping them safe for us young parents, we need al the help we can get. I love you grandma and tell pop pop that his BULL is okay. I love you grandma, and oh yeah, wear your hair down, your in heaven, It won't get in you face up there, the breeze is to perfect..lol lu you bunch. until later tony###imported-

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. Even though this is a painful time, we can find comfort in the wonderful Christian hope of the resurrection. Jesus promises at John 5:28,29-"Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hey Thomas what's going on? I love you bunches and bunches and I miss you more than words can express. I had to update mommy's Avanced Directive on Tuesday and I felt so sad and alone because we were a team. I asked God what He would have me do and I did what I thought He wanted and what you would do and I hope I made the right decision. You were always there for me and I find it difficult to decide for mommy without your wisdom and comfort, but I promise you I will do what we planned for her from the beginning.Thank you for being faithful to God and for taking excellent care of mommy rest well and please pray for me. “ Deanie, Stephanie, Tracy, and Kimberly are pieces of work. You had a beautiful Homegoing and I was kind of glad that I was not asked to sing because my heart was so very sad. So what do your darlings do? After communion they asked me to sing, and out of all the songs I sing I could not find one that I thought would be appeasing, so I asked God to order my steps and I pray that He received the glory and that you were listening because I did the best I could do. Peace be with you always, Nece##imported-begin##Nece##imported-end##

“ Mommie, GOD has blessed me to have a mother like you. Every morning I thank him for allowing me to see another beautiful day and for giving me the gift of having you as my mother and sharing the most memorable times. Everyday, I wish you were still here. That will never change. I find myself staring at your picture wanting to hear your voice over and over and over. It seems just like yesterday I was picking up the phone calling you or you were calling me. I miss that soooooooooooooo much that sometimes it's harder to deal with than other times. I wish so so much to see you again. You are and will always be my mother, I LOVE YOU FOREVER. YOU and ME ALWAYS YOUR BABY GIRL###imported-begin##Baby Girl###imported-end##

“ Good morning mommie, it's baby girl again. Well it's halloween and I am sadly missing all of your crazy toys that makes all kinds of crazy sounds. I remember when I was in the fifth grade and you brought me a cooky spook costume for the party I was having in school. I was the silliest looking child there and truly was laughed at all day. Most important, you as usual went out of your way to make sure I had a costume and made sure I participated in the school festivities. Though I am sad and my life will never be the same, I am glad I have all these unforgettable and fond memories of you and of us. Nevertheless it's still not the same of having you not present and not being here with me and not always being available when I need you, even when at times you didn't feel like it. Thank you, Thank you, Thank you. You mean the world to me. I LOVE YOU AND I MISS YOU. MY HEART AND SOUL ACHE FOR YOU SO SO BADLY. In due season I know I will see you again and I can't wait. GOD will continue to handle my heartache and pains. I am so GRATEFUL for YOU MOMMIE. ##imported-begin##Baby Girl###imported-end##

“ Hi Mommie, I know you are doing perfect,as for me I am still the same.It is so so hard and difficult and now I have LOST TWO EXTREMELY IMPORTANT PEOPLE IN MY LIFE.TOOOOOOOOO fast and way to soon.Even though my birthday hasn't arrived yet I honestly feel the pain of not receiving a phone call or a birthday card I know this is exactly how Stephanie,Tracy and David felt and of course our MISS AMERICA KRYSTAL, though her's is only a few days away.I don't know what I'm going to do having to pay her way and leaving a nice tip,more importantly you not being with us.Mom please put a bug in Uncle Roberts ear so that Nece's heart can rest.I am still going on the cruise although I am very skeptacle about going,by now you would have had all my information,it's just not the same anymore mommie,I am so use to explaining to you what i'm doing,where I'm going and with whom and the first thing you say is what about the children?Well to answer your question,Kam will stay with Krystal since his school is up the street,Chris will remain with big Chris.Don't worry Stephanie,Tracy,Sharon and Nece knows to check on them all while I'm away and without a doubt I know you will care for them as well.Tell granny I miss her so much and she was as beautiful as ever.I know her broken heart is fixed because you'll are together again.Mommie you knew Nece had to focus on Uncle Robert and you felt she did enough by herself so you kept your promise to Nece and that was to never leave her to care for Granny by herself.Thank you MOMMIE for taking such EXCELLENT care of my GRANDMOTHER.MOMMIE I promise you that I will be an excellent grandmother and tell Kanijah all the wonderful stories and memories we have and I will definitely tell the BRAT all about her GREAT-GRANDMOTHER and GREAT,GREAT-GRANDMOTHER. “ Hi MOMMIE, I started writing you last night but my computer at home shut down before I could finish. I got tired of abusing the computers at work (unlike Tracy) so I decided to use my laptop at home. Well Stephanie is in Virginia Beach this weekend (it's time for her to find another place to vacation, right! I know.) She doesn't even bring me anything back the OLD ORANGE THING. Anyways I have exactly six days before I set sail. I may be going alone, either way it's okay because you will be with me. I come back the day before my birthday (HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO ME.) Tell GRANNY and see what she has to say. I'm trying to convince Krystal to go somewhere other than Red Lobster on Tuesday for her birthday, remember we went there last year for her b-day. I know I know if that's where she wants to go so be it it's her birthday and she gets to choose. I hear you saying that so clear, it's as if I was talking to you on the phone. I miss those times so much I can't emphasize enough. I think about you all the time, everything I do just always reminds me of you or something relating to you. I ask GOD to please please give all of us the strength and courage to get through your favorite times of the year. I am so so fortunate to have had a wonderful life with you and remember all the things you have done and would do during this time of year, the things that make me do the things I do for my children and the excitement of all of what you've done for us when we were children, gift wrapping, baking cookies, trimming the tree (but not before Christmas Eve) etc..... Mommie how can we do it without you and Granny? I ask GOD to guide us so that our kids can have it as great as we did. Mommie it's not a day that goes by that I don't need you, if there's any person mainly a woman that feels they don't need "MOMMIE", I stand tall and proud to correct them, YOU ARE A DAMN LIE. Mommie you are a REMARKABLE WOMAN and GOD himself can be nothing other than proud to have created a human being such as yourself and of course GRANNY who instilled in you what you have instilled in us. Thank you GOD for having such STRONG SOILDERS CARE FOR ME AND RAISE ME. YOU two have done an OUTSTANDING task. WE as a family will survive all of our losses. to all of my loved ones siblings, aunts uncles, children, neices, nephews and my dad (Bernard), WE ARE

IMPERFECT PEOPLE(let's not use this as an excuse) SERVING A PERFECT GOOD AND GENEROUS GOD.HE'S TELLING US SOMETHING.LET'S PAY ATTENTION.YOU'LL WITH ME.The seed has been planted from years ago Granny showed us.Just ask yourself what was her routine every day no matter what generation it was still the same,with or without an opinion but not a complaint.Granny And Mommie I know without a doubt you two are happily swinging on the Golden Gate.I LOVE YOU'LL for ever and ever and ever.##imported-begin##Baby Girl##imported-end##

“ Deanie I was thinking about mommy and you as usual and I thought about the day we took her to the nursing home. Remember? Mommy was so determined not to get out of your car and we had to trick her remember? Remember how we cried because we had to leave her, but I remember how you comforted me and said "Nana will be fine". Thank you for blessing my soul over and over again. Remember how you and Pam were the police for mommy? When you spoke things happened again thanks for being a small but powerful woman. Tell mommy and everyone I love them and I look forward to our great reunion and remember I love you more than I can express. Pray for me. Nece###imported-begin###Nece###imported-end##

“ Dean , Sorry it has been awhile since we last talked. It has been a little rough. This is a very hard year. All the key players are missing here with us. You know how hard it is when things change. This is somewhat a disaster. With Granny, Mommie, and You gone the holidays are not the same. We always knew no matter what we would be on Loudon. It seems just like yesterday that you all have past over. I'm not angry that you all are gone its just that it hurts very deeply. I will not be selfish and want you all here in pain. It's just that it doesn't feel right. I know things will get better over time but, right now so many things have happened. I know that it is hard for you all knowing that you all are not here in the present but, always here in spirit. I MISS YOU ALL SO MUCH! Please embrace us all ever so tightly family we need it so much. Well, Dean , Mommie, Grannie, Jeri, Donald, Avon, Pam, Beverly And any of my extended family. WE LOVE YOU AND MISS YOU ALL DEARLY.###imported-begin###sharon###imported-end###

“ Hello Mommie, it's me again. I told you I would write again shortly. I figured out one of the reasons I was feeling ugly was because I couldn't write to you. Just in case you didn't know, writing to you is part of my daily schedule [in the must do column]. During my 3 week vacation [I had to express how long so Tracy and Stephanie can be jealous] I was sad because I couldn't write to you [thanks to the crooks who violated me]. I did enjoy myself however, there were times I had to get myself together. I talk about you all the time even when I'm by myself, I sometimes talk out loud. I know your listening but still it's not the same as having you here. I want you back so bad that's all I think about. I am far off from being in the holiday spirit. I don't want to participate in decorating, gift exchanging no nothing. I don't even want to shop [YOU KNOW SOMETHING IS TERRIBLY WRONG]. Everyone says it will get better. NOOOOOOOOOOOT. I don't see that at all. It's 6:23p.m. and my shift is almost over. I tried to do some work but didn't feel like it. I know what was I doing? Mom stop playing you know you were watching me. Absolutely nothing. Well, I'm preparing myself to stop looking at your picture because I have to log off so I will talk to you when I get home, if you decide to answer me back I promise I won't be afraid just let me know it's okay. “ hey lady-bug. Well lots of events have transpired since I last wrote to you. You know that I had a birthday. The older you get the faster the birthdays come now. I wish you could give me some advice on this fat, lazy trifling, disgusting person that is in my house. I am speaking of Ricks fat sloppy sister judy. Dean, I know that it is not right to hate a person but truthfully I am borderline on totally disliking this person. Dean she is so dirty and I am not stretching the truth at all. She is a SLOB. I can't stand her. Either I am going to leave or she is going to leave. I won't disgrace your page with the details but I needed to vent and I know that you and I are alike. We don't pull no punches. We have no cut-cards. We say what we mean and we mean what we say. Oh sweet JESUS, I wish that I could just hear your voice one more time. Well maybe two more times. HA_HA!It is actually 1;30 xmas eve and I am waiting on Bobbie. She called at noon and said she was on her way. I guess she is taking the scenic route to get to my house. We have some last minute shopping to do. Well baby, I will be writing to you real soon. Hey there is a knock at the door. That should be my mother. I will talk to you a little bit later. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. I wonder what kind of party you all are going to have up there. I know one thing- your guest list is pretty awesome. “ Hello MY PERSONAL ANGEL, it has been a while since I have last wrote you and believe me I am not happy about that.MOMMIE I MISS YOU SO MUCH it is still unbearable.STEPHANIE, Tracy and I spent new years together as always but it was and still is far far from being the same.I long so much for the way things use to be.There's not a day that goes by that I don't think about you, I just LOVE YOU SO MUCH,I find myself in deep thought,this happens very often.It's a new year and I am truely grateful and blessed that God has allowed me to see another year however I am AFRAID for many reasons.MOMMIE I will never get over your death.I have to just continue to ask GOD to help me cope with the reality of not being able to visit,no more phone conversations(talking about Stephanie and Tracy and knowing that I am really your favorite)and so much more.MOMMIE I PROMISE I will be the GRANDMOTHER you were(she just can't call me grandma,not yet)I PROMISE I will establish a relationship with Kanijah Nadine and bond with her just as you did my only baby girl(mommy girl).I know if you were here you would do the same and would expect the same from me.MOMMIE please help me be a wonderful grandmother and guide me to follow your footsteps in being wonderful grandmother so Kanijah can feel close to me as my girl was and still is close to you.Kameron and Christopher love her so much I know they are going to protect her(she is in serious trouble).Well your sister-in-law pulled a trick and introduced him to some GAIL-----.Okay I'll stop but you know she did it being smart,in due time he would have met someone if and when he was ready and on his own.Well she has to except us and WE WILL continue to talk about you,that will never ever change.I'll do my best and try to like her as long as she syays in her place but that other one-----sorry.The next few weeks we will be discussing getting you a marker,don't worry we're on it.I will be out to your grave on Sunday rather than Monday because I have to work.MOMMIE I could be on this computer 24/7 talking to you if I could although your not on the phone I know you are reading and listening.I sure do miss you.I am going to get another lap top so we can keep in touch and I will be calling March to see if I can extend your web page even if it costs me.Well I have

“ *Good Morning MY Angel, I know you are doing perfect because you are in a perfect home. Tell Granny and everyone else I said good morning too. Tell Granny I said happy 89th birthday. I know you all are rally rejoicing and celebrating. Tell Uncle Robert don't use up all the film. Bernard is back in the hospital but don't worry we're on it. I know the majority of his problem is he misses you as we all do. Mommie please please continue to watch over me, I often feel as if i'm growing up all over again because I feel so unnutured without you here. I am so so use to you being a part of everything and knowing everything about me and everything we have shared. I just feel so lost and empty. I remember everything you have instilled in me and taught me but I just need you here with me. My sibblings is all I have next to GOD being first. I totally agree with Tracy, everyone is all grown up now or just about, I just hope they understand and realize how important it is to be a family and stick together as one whole unity no matter what's going on in their lives or how busy they are, famiy is first and a must. There's not enough words or ways to express those feelings. I think about you all the time. I know I sometimes repeat myself over and over about how I feel and what I have gone through and still is but I truely can't help myself. You were my support and my other backbone. I say my other backbone because you have taught me to survive and how to be strong as well as independant. You taught me that no matter what I go through, I am always second in control with GOD being first. Again thank you MOMMIE for everything. YOU are a true SOILDER. “ Good Morning Angel, I am here at work(doing a little overtime)to try and get some bills out of the way.My Steelers disappointed me last night after they were up by one in the 4th quarter,that's okay we still have your team in the playoffs and I will just have to cheer for them.Anyways I know you are doing perfect in paradise,as for me I am still trying everyday to cope with losing you.Bernard is out of the hospital and appears to be okay(as far as appearance)we will just continue to watch out for him while you are constantly watching over every one of us.Tell the GINGERSNAP I said hello and I love and miss her along with everyone else.I really wish we knew about these web pages for the rest of our loved ones we have lost,but we also know You and Granny have informed them about everything.Mommie there are some things I am looking forward to this year as well as some changes that will be taking place(I hope)all for the good,a little anxious but ready.Kameron is not the little baby boy who wants to be up under me,he likes his own time and likes to manage his own schedule of events(like he's so busy)still gets knocked out just slightly a little less.Christopher is still Christopher,the man DIVA just don't step on his feet and touch his clothes(that's a BIG NO NO)not to mention he and Justin are still two old men(very handsome I must say)and the GIRL(mommy girl)what can I say other than we will talk about that one later.She will take up too much of our time.Well I am only here for 8 hours so I have to do what I do best at work and pretend I am working.I will chat with you very soon.LOVE YOU LOVE YOU LOVE YOU. We miss you so much. I miss you so much it hurts. Everyday is a struggle. I am only able to go on because of the children. Most days I feel like I'm in a fogg. I'm afraid of where I would B without U if it weren't for the children. The holdiays have been extremely difficult. The year in itself was devastating. There is something of U that surrounds me all day everyday. That really helps me. Justin & Jami R well & talk about U all the time. Jami is having surgery on the 17th. Im sure you R aware & will B looking over her. I looked in the mirrow @ myself and saw U. It was startling & a bit uncanny, but I was really looking @ U through me. I'm going 4 now, but I'll B back. Please tell my Granny & everyone else hello 4 me. Give Granny a big Happy B-DAY kiss. And by the way, I don't appreciate you calling me June Clever. “ Hello Angel, Today marks the fifth anniversary of your death and as I was driving to work this morning I asked GOD to give me the strength to get through the day.It is still very hard and difficult to think about how long it's been not having you with us,I can still see your face so clear as if you were still here with me(us).Everyday I picture what you would be doing and still missing the times I would call you throughtout the day.I miss asking what your cooking for dinner and so much more.Mommie I also often think about how and what it would be like if you knew Kanijah(as if I need to wonder).I know without a doubt you would have that special bond with her as you had and have with Krystal,speaking of her she asked Nece to be Kanijah's GOD mother and of coarse she accepted.I said to myself thank-you.I find myself missing you more and more and the pain is still there.I truely beleive that part of my pain will never heal and my heart will never completely mend.I say this for many many reasons.Well my time is almost up at work and my usual I need to pretend that i'm doing some things,I will be talking to you shortly.Missing you and loving you lots and lots and lots your only baby girl. You are my ANGEL I LOVE YOU

“ Hey Aunt Deanie!! It's Brittany, as if u didn't know that already but I just wanted to write u a few lines to let u know that I miss u and that I love u. I was in the hospital the other day with Kim, Tracie, and Stephanie and they are a trip. They had me cracking up even though as usual we were together on a sad occasion. I sat a@ work 2day and read all ur messages and they moved me to tears in fact they brought back all the memories and feeling i had when my mom passed. You know I know what it feels like to have ur mother taken away in such an unexpected way, for lack of a better term. And I tell u it makes it that much harded when it is unexpected and it is going to take a long time for ur children to heal so please just watch over them as i know u are doing but just take extra xtra care of them and i'll keep them in my prays. by the way can u tell my mom I love her and miss her much. Tell her Taylor is still Taylor and stubborn as ever if not more and she looks so much like her that it scare me some times. Tell her Miss Kendall never got to meet her personally but talks about her as if she were right here with us. As for me I'm doing pretty good but I haven't reached my ultimate goal yet but I know with all the wonderful angels I have watching my back I can't and won't fail. I'm glad those hethens up there need some parental supervision and I know u and granny are up there runny things.HA HA But at the same time us earthings are down here in alot of pain so can u guys just help ease the pain a bit. But anyway I need to get back to work and unlike Kim I really have to do some work. By the way I wanna be just like her when I grow-up going on cruises with jobs I do no work at must be nice. Tell the family I love them and give my mom a big huge and kiss for me!!!!!! Love u and I'll see you when it my time but no rush...just save me a place. Thanks Mucho Grande Love###imported-begin###BRITTANY###imported-end###

“ HI MOMMIE, I told you I was going to be chatting with you very soon,I am off for the next two days and I won't have access to a computer so I have to talk to you now.I am going with Stephanie tommorow to Jami's pre-op for her surgery and I have to take care of our business with you also.Your baby sister had an okay birthday although she said it was good(she can't fool me.)I know she is missing you all and the things Uncle Robert would do if he was here.Mommie tell Aunt Joann to get her act together and stop being hard-headed,she has no choice but to listen to you because you are our ANGEL.I couldn't even go over to her because I was so shaken up about her being like that and seeing her that way.I will continue to pray for her as well as the rest of the family.Guess what?Kanijah is over five pounds now and she really is adorable(Ms.Diva Diamond).Christopher and Kameron adores her so much they are just a mess with her.Well it's about that time for me to get off from work so I will chat with you as soon as I return. P.S. Let Brittany know I am like you,eventually I won't have to go to work at all and still go on cruises and some.HA HA HA HA HA HA HA HA HA.##imported-begin##Baby Girl##imported-end##

“ hi mommie, i just felt a need to talk to you. i am doing okay, i guess. mommie, i felt so at peace the other day when i visited you. mommie, i need you to do me a special favor and take extra care of joann. she is not doing to good right now. when i first got the phone call from uncle eddie, i said to myself mommie and granny are already on it along with her big sister sandra and her brother avon. she has not been feeling good for a while. let robert know that nece is coming along slowly but surely and not to worry. bernard is out of the hospital, but we are on top of that because we know that you would not have it any other way. i forgot to ask you to give granny a great big birthday hug and kiss for me, by the way give everybody a great big hug and kiss for me. mommie, i know that family has always been very important to you. i now realize how important family is. mommie, it is such a blessing because since you left this earth physically, everyone in the family has been so good to your children. i know that they know how much you appreciate that. they have been there for everything no matter what it is. to be honest, i don't know what i would do without them. stephanie and kim also play a very big part in that. mommie i do not know what i would do if you did not have this web page. it is such a big help because i can talk to you whenever i want to. it is very important for me to know that you know how important you are to me. well mommie, i just had some things that i had to get off my chest and now i feel a little better. i will be talking to you real soon. so until then still loving and missing you a bunch. plenty of hugs and kisses.

“ Hello My Angel, I am at work thinking about you and missing you as always.guess what?I watched Kanijah while Krystal went out for a while and honestly I did not feel as if I was a grandmother but I knew in reality I was.It didn't hit me until later that not only was I babysitting but it was my grand-daughter(WOW I AM REALLY A GRANDMOTHER,WOW!!!!)Well enough of that,tell the clan I said hello and I miss them.Bernard is back in the hospital over at bayview this time.Mommie he really needs you and misses you I am absolutely and positively sure that he's still grieving(as we all are).I worry about him and your sibblings,I just be stressed out.Here it is the new year and I still feel stressed and drained and some. It is not the same without you and with everything we all have been through and now this with Bernard again an Joann,I am spinning.I know you will help see us through as well as making sure Bernard and Joann are okay.I am so ready to move and anxious to begin exercising my plans(yes I do have a back-up plan)however I just want everything to go really good,I am being very positive about everything.I just stare and stare at your picture here on the web and espically when i'm at Tracy's I am sometimes in a daze, it's really scary because all I do is think if only you were here and how much I feel so so sad.Honestly mommie sometimes I don't want to look at your picture because it hurts so bad I feel it all over and it sometimes take me back down memory lane,all the way back.I often think from day one when we all found out and it was confirmed,even then I wasn't the same no matter how much I tried to be the same or avoid that you were terminally ill.I don't mean to keep talking about the negative it is just a pain that never ends or go away.I truely know you are definitely here with me(us) in spirit but honestly it's not enough.I hope GOD and you understand me and my pain and not be angry with me.Well I feel myself getting a little upset and i'm sure it will be okay to an extent.Mommie I just love you so much, please help me through.Thank you again for being the MOMMIE and MOTHER you definately were.Much Much Love,Hugs and Kisses.YOU WERE TRURLY A GOD GIVING GIFT,I WILL NEVER EVER STOP LOVING YOU.REST WELL MOMMIE YOU DESERVE IT. “ HI MOMMIE, WELL I GUESS THAT YOU HAVE HEARD THAT BERNARD IS BACK IN THE HOSPITAL. DON'T BE MAD AT ME MOMMIE, BUT AFTER SEEING JOANN IN THE HOSPITAL, I JUST COULD NOT DO IT ANYMORE. STEPHANIE AND KIM HAS BEEN CHECKING ON HIM AND I WILL BE TOO. TELL THE GANG UP THERE IN THAT PLACE OF PARADISE THAT I SAID HELLO AND SEND MY LOVE. I GUESS ONE DAY IT WILL BE OKAY AND EVERYBODY WILL BE ALRIGHT, AT LEAST FOR A LITTLE WHILE. ALL THE KIDS AND THE GRANDKIDS ARE DOING OKAY. KARLO, TYSEAN, AND MACKENZIE ARE REALLY GROWING. MOMMIE, I THOUGHT THAT ONCE I FINISHED NURSING SCHOOL, I WOULD BE THE HAPPIEST PERSON IN THE WORLD. I AM HAPPY, BUT IT IS LIKE A BITTER-SWEET ACCOMPLISHMENT. I LONG FOR YOU SO BAD THAT I SOMETIMES MAKE MYSELF SICK. I AM TRYING MY BEST TO GET IT TOGETHER BECAUSE I KNOW THAT IS NOT WHAT YOU WANT FOR ME. EVERYTHING AND EVERYBODY SEEMS TO HAVE SOME KIND OF RESEMBLENCE OF YOU. I HONESTLY FEEL THAT WHEN WE FINALLY GET YOUR MARKER AND THEY FIX UP THE AREA WHERE YOUR EARTHLY SHELL REST, THEN MAYBE IT WILL GIVE ME A LITTLE PEICE OF MIND AND I WILL FEEL MUCH BETTER. WELL MOMMIE, YOU KNOW WHERE I AM AT(SMILE). KEEP LOOKING OUT FOR YOUR SIBLINGS AND WATCHING OVER THE FAMILY AND YOUR CHILDREN. I WILL BE TALKING TO YOU REAL SOON. UNTIL THEN PLENTY OF LOVE, HUGS, AND KISSES.

“ Thomas the web page ended but I wanted to tell you that this is a good day, but very sad for me. Robert has been dead for a month and it feels like 10 years. Thomas I really don't know if I can make it because my soul and spirit are very, very tired. I have to go to Poon in a few days and all I talk about is you, mommy, and Robert my stomach hurts so bad, but with the grace of God I will be okay. God knows my limit and He is dealing with me in this difficult time, if I couldn't lean on Him I would really be in trouble. Thomas your girls are so sad they can't fool me. I have asked God to walk with them a little closer because their spirits are so broken and I know God will do that for me while they are mourning. Tell mommy I am tired and sad and to kiss Robert for me. Thank you for being a blessing in my life I will never forget the love we shared. When you left me a part of me died as well and I feel the same way with mommy and Robert. Tell God I love Him and ask Him to continue to give me mercy when I come home. “ Hey Thomas just wanted to say "Hey". Please give my Cookie a sugar for me and Robert as well. Tell Cooper and the rest of the clan I love them and miss them so much. I miss calling you 3 & 4 times a day and talking about everything and nothing at the same time just listening to your wisdom. Thomas please continue to pray for your babies and Bernard because they are sad puppies, but the God I serve is a healer and I know He will do His part and make them whole. Gotta go love all of you more than you'll know and I will talk to you soon. “ Hey Thomas last night we were talking about you because your grandchildren talk about you daily and Kameron said to me "Grandma I am afraid to die are you"? I told him "Yes" because death is a mystery and we don't see or know the total picture, but as we grow in God that fear will become less.He looked at me and kinda smiled and I reassured him as best as I could that God was not ready for him because he needed to live out his purpose.We have experienced so much death lately that it affects us all differently but I am so glad that God understands our nature and loves us anyway.See you when I come home. “ Hi Mommy, Just sitting here watching American Idol. U know that's my show. This is one of the few times I can sit & laugh without thinking. Tomorrow is Jami's big day. I know she'll B fine because you & Granny will B right there with her. Mommy, I'm a little worried about Bernard. He's not taking good care of himself. We R really trying 2 look after him, but like Tracy said; it's so hard. I keep calling him. I know he wishes I would leave him alone, but we promised U that we would look after him, so I won't. I saw Joann today. I'm so glad she is doing better. She still has a long way 2 go though. Can U believe Tony is 21? Can U believe little Jonn will B 1 tomorrow? Mommy as U already know, I MISS YOU DEARLY & I LOVE YOU WITH EVERYTHING I AM. Give Granny a kiss 4 me & tell everyone hello. SHE HAS NO CHOICE WITH ALL THOSE ANGELS WATCHING OVER HER(YOU, GRANNY,SANDRA AVON,PAM,DONALD, AND FLYNN). CAN YOU BELEIVE THAT TONY TURNED 21 YESTERDAY. THEY ALL THINK THAT THEY ARE GROWN ANYWAY. I AM ALMOST FINISHED WITH THE THINGS I HAVE TO DO FOR THE SCHOOL, SO THAT I WILL BE ABLE TO FINALLY TAKE MY STATE BOARDS. I PROMISE YOU THAT YOU WILL BE THE FIRST TO KNOW OF MY RESULTS. “ Hey Thomas thank you for raising wonderful women because they really are wonderful! Thomas I know you are at home but since Robert left me I have been going to the phone to call you and to ask you for help. Please tell mommy that right now I am very emotional, but the doctor said that is expected. Since Robert went home I have cried daily and I have tried to be strong but I truly don't feel well physically either. Deanie thank you for sharing your girls with me because they have truly blessed me and I could never repay them. Maybe Kim you think? {smile} I missed you so much yesterday because God sent snow and you would always call everyone to see if they made it home safely. I had to drive in it for the first time because like you Robert would always take care of me and I miss him more than I can say, but I learned in bible study today that God spoke to Robert and he was so ready to leave so God honored that and now he is free! I will continue to pray for myself as well because I don't want your babes to be worried about me because they have much on their plates. When I look at them I look past the flesh and go right for the soul and they are heartbroken so my concern is for them not myself. Gotta go tell everyone I love them soooo much and I will see you when I come home. Nece-##imported-begin##nece##imported-end##

“ Thomas God willing I will be going back to Palormo soon, but the house needs much work. God has provided what I need to get the work done so now I must take care of business. Tracy and Karl have blessed me so and I am so grateful, but remember what Mae used to say "Don't wear out your welcome" so now I must get used to being single once again. Tracy told me I did not have to leave, but I reminded her that my personal situation is temporal. Stephanie asked me to come with her but I don't want to bother anyone including Tracy and Karl but at the same time it's nice to be thought about and cared for. I always say God did not give me children for a purpose but He blessed me with enough people to help me when I need them. “ Hello Mommie, I am feeling better today.I called out on this past Friday because for one I wasn't feeling well physically nor emotionally and I was going through some personal things.Mommie sometimes my mind is so cluttered that I loose focus on things and that's not good.No matter how hard I try,it seems as if it becomes more difficult.I miss you so so much because it has never been a time that you weren't there to listen or to busy to listen. You always gave me feed back and never criticised me.Well I know it's only temporary and I will be just fine.Anyway I need your help in another situation dealing with my son Christopher.He is truely a good boy,Help me to guide him along with GOD in front leading us letting him know that things will be okay and he will always have a home.I pray for my kids all the time as well as myself and others.I trust and know that this situation has already been dealt with.Kameron talks about you all the time and often tells me how much he misses you.Krystal it's just written all over her face and Chris he tries to hide it although he watches the video tapes often and let me tell you miss Kanijah(DIVA DIAMOND)weighs 6lbs.4ozs.now isin't that great!Tell everyone I said hello and I love them and miss them all.I am going to definately buy myself a laptop when I get my refund money.Sometimes I feel I run out of things to say, all because I wish so badly to see you and be able to talk to you face to face or on the phone.I went to church last Saturday and the sermon was about "The Lamb of GOD" I really enjoyed listening and more importantly I totally understood and honestly it feels great to understand something so meaningful.Going through these devastating trageties I have more knowledge and insite on some things I never knew or understood(still have ways and ways to go)with in time my relationship with GOD will be even closer than it is now.I know you will be happy but GOD will be happiest(make sure you tell Granny okay,she too will be happy)Well I have to come to a close now(you know i'm not liking this)I can go on and on and on see this is why I need you here.I love you unconditionally mommie and I miss you tremendously.Please continue to watch over me(us).Thank you again for loving me the way I know you always have and still does.Peace be with you mommie,Always Me Your Baby

“ Thomas I forgot to tell you part of the reason I am getting Palormo together is so my Godchildren can have a place to go if something should happen with one of their homes. Kim has already asked to come back even though she is not my Godchild but she will be bringing my Godchild with her. I want the place decent and enjoyable for anyone who visits and that's what I kept telling Robert, so before you kiss him slap his bald head.If I come home tonight Palormo is paid in full and I am leaving instructions with the oldest child to use Palormo as she sees fit for I will have a mansion. Praise God!!!Pray for me because we are supposed to get more snow and I don't drive well in the snow. I forgot to tell you but I know you know yesterday was Pamela's birthday and I called her to no avail, but I pray she will have a properous and blessed year in Jesus' Name amen.##imported-begin##Nece##imported-end##

“ Hey Thomas does my Cookie have her wings yet? Your babies are not real great but I will continue to help out when I can. All of them are devastated and they are not healing well spiritually or physically or otherwise so continue to smile on them. The holy word says we are not without hope when loved ones go ahead of us nor should we grieve as the world does. I have my moments but that one scripture gives me confidence and I trust in Jesus that the girls will come around and allow Him to take the suffering because He has already conquered the grave. I just feel so bad because I wish I could help them and make things better, but I can't. Thomas if I could I would ask God to let you come back and I would leave so your babies would be happy, but there is a reason you went home before me. I have to go look at front and back doors for Palormo so tell Robert. Thomas he left me with all this mess and now he lives in a mansion, but I too have a mansion and I can't imagine how wonderful it will be. Also tell him I have cleaned out his storage and 20% of the junk he had in the living room is gone but your girls and Sharon and Angie are responsible for that. {smile} Thomas I will be talking with you before the day is over and tell mommy I love her sooo much. Hugs and kisses to all and a special one to Robert.

“ Thomas in your guestbook I see your name is misspelled. Francis should be Frances and Thomas should not have an extra "S" just an apostrophe but the thought is there. Thomas tell Robert that we are getting ready to trash the bedroom and I can't wait but Sharon and Angie are responsible for that I don't want him mad at me haha. Just joking I know he could care less now and I don't blame him. I know Avon had a birthday in the natural on the 23rd, but not in heaven because we will never grow old and I am grateful for that. I found out the other day that Sydney will be having a baby shower on the 12th of February so God willing I will be going to that. I wish she and Krystal the best with their babies because they are babies themselves. I asked God to shower them with great wisdom because that and powerful unyielding prayer will make them God fearing parents so continue to pray for them too. Gotta go to the bank be back shortly talk to you. Nece##imported-begin##Nece##imported-end##

“ hi mommie, i know it has been a few days, but remember when i told you that i would be off for a few days. mommie, i just don't know what to say. i know that you know how much i love and miss you but that is all i seem to want to tell you. i want to start feeling better about you not being able to be physically here with me and some days i think i am getting better and other days it is like it just happened yesterday. everybody is still doing their best to try to help us cope and it really helps. i told you, it is nothing like having family there for you. i am trying my best to make you proud of me. i just wish that you were here, but i understand that god knows best.the kids are still doing okay and tony is coming along with his new job.joann is still improving more and more everyday and we have nobody but god to thank for that.i have not talked to betty in a while but, i will make sure that i touch base with her real soon.i haven't heard from joyce in a while either.from what i hear uncle gene is doing better. now that i have updated you on everything, make sure that you tell everybody else what is going on. well, i am going to try to do a little bit of work now, but you know not to much. just know that i miss and love you so much and that will never change. so until the next time plenty of hugs and kisses and share them with everybody. give granny a great big hug and kiss for me and tell my cooper i said what's up. tell uncle robert that i said thanks for the video. xoxoxoxoxoxoxo##imported-begin##tracy##imported-end##

“ Hello Mommie, I know you are doing magnificent being in paradise. I wish so much that you were here with me physically. I often wonder how it is and what you are doing as well as what you would be doing if you were here. I can't help imagining what it's like because you are there and I am here and we have been seperated. I am grateful that you aren't suffering anymore, however I wish all the time that you were still with us. The cloud comes and goes and at times it's darker than other times. I always think about you and it seems when the cloud is darker it's worse. I am so desperate to hear your voice, to see your frowns, laugh at your jokes and pajama pants you wear to the market and so on..... I just want you more and more everyday. there's just so much I miss doing with you and so much I miss you doing for me. I just want things to get better but who am I fooling. My heart is broken and my soul aches. What do I do? I am trying to be strong but sometimes I fall. I ask myself what do I need to do. I also ask what was GODS purpose for taking you from me so soon? Will the reason or reasons ever be revealed? If you had the choice to come back, would you? I wouldn't be angry if you say no, because GOD comes first and he is in command and we all have to obey him. I guess I am trying to understand why you and why right now. Ask GOD to help me and I will continue to ask him too. I feel so unbalanced with everything I sometimes feel sick. I don't mean to burden you but as always you were there and always listened. I ask GOD to speak to my heart and order my steps. I just hope I am still so I can listen. I will be of GREAT COURAGE and wait on him. GOD please help me. Thank you. Mommie I LOVE YOU. “ Good Morning Mommie, I am here at work again. I don't like working weekends at all. Just wanted to say hello and let you know I am thinking about you as always. Let Granny know that I really miss her and that I was listening to one of her favorite songs this morning called "Blessed and Broken". I am so proud of Christopher, he got accepted into West Virginia University and I know for sure you are so very proud of him too (let everyone know). I know Avon is smiling on Bubba (remember he gave him that name). I pray he does not go in the reserves, I have very strong and negative feelings about this. I have ask GOD to help him in making that decision as well as keeping him strong and knowledgable. Christopher has to do what makes him happy and persue his dreams and goals. GOD will too order his steps. Kameron (my challenging one) gave me an ear full the other day. That boy is a mess I don't know what I am going to do with him. As far as Krystal she is such a baby, I don't know who is worse she or Kanijah. Speaking of her she is doing wonderful and growing so well. I think she knows me and my voice. Well I need to go and feed my brain, you know food for thought (that is a must) so before I leave today I will make sure I chat with you. I promise. I LOVE YOU. “ A love letter to Robert: My darling Robert I miss you so much. Everyday I go home I still look for you in your favotite chair and I sometimes think I hear you breathing.I need for you to know that you are the wind beneath my wings.You always said I was but you were the awesome one.Your handsome face is forever in my soul and I will look for you second only to Jesus when I come home. You had a very special way of taking care of me and I was so blessed to be a part of your life. Robert my life has changed and I will never be the same; because of your kind spirit and your faithfulness to God my spirit in God has become stronger.You always said that I was the one who knew God, but that is not true you knew Him and now you know Him well.Give God a high 5 for me and one of those brother hugs you know the one.Thank you Robert for being an awesome man of God and rest well because when I come home we will pick up where we left off.ALL my love, Colored Girl###imported-begin###nece###imported-end##

“ Hey Thomas clinic is slow today so I have a little time to chat. Please tell mommy I miss her so much and that I am always thinking about her; I also want you to tell Wally, Smoochie, and Avon I love them as well and look forward to the great reunion! Thomas Tracy and kim made me go on the beltway and it was more than a journey. Guess what? I wounded up in Fredrick and Glen Burnie from Millford Mill, but it was a learning experience that I will never forget. You can laugh they did and I did as well and be sure to tell mommy, Robert, and Sandra about that. I understand what you mean about the beltway and I am with you never again and no thank you. As long as there is another way for me to get from one point to the next I will take the City Route. I often think about the times we went to mass together and you took up the gifts that was so special to God and to me and I will take that precious memory to eternal life to share once again with you. Gotta go but before I do would you please ask Jesus to give His dad a hug for me and will you hug everyone else? Tell Gerri I know her manison is TIGHT and that's right and tell her even though she may not have believed she was special she really was. Tell her thanks for being a believer in her own right because now as she stands in God's Presence she is total and complete just like Him. Thank you Jesus, Thank you Jesus Amen!!! Love ya and see you when I come home.###imported-begin###nece###imported-end##
