

Nadine L. Roberson

June 17, 1934 - May 27, 2025

NADINE L. ROBERSON, daughter of the late Moultrie B. Lowery and Chessie Laws Keels, was born June 17, 1934, in Lee County, South Carolina. She departed her earthly home on May 27, 2025, to spend eternity in her heavenly home.

She attended St. John High School in Sumter County, South Carolina.

Nadine married Sam Wesley Roberson in October 1952 and was married for 52 years until Sam's death. Together with her loving husband, they relocated to Baltimore, Maryland in 1956.

Nadine attended Carver Vocational-Technical School for Dress Making and graduated in May 1963.

Nadine loved traveling to South Carolina with her sister Edith to enjoy some country sweet potatoes and good old pork barbeque. She also loved going out to eat a good crab cake.

In November 1978 Mother Nadine was baptized in Jesus name and filled with the gift of the Holy Ghost. She then joined the Redeemed Church of Christ, under the leadership of Bishop Western. Growing in the faith, Mother Nadine became a member of New Galilee Church of God in Christ under the leadership of the late Bishop Golphin where she was a member for many years. By the leading of the Holy Ghost, she became a member of the True Gospel Apostolic Faith Church under the leadership of Bishop Otto Richardson, Jr., where she remained a faithful member until her health declined.

Mother Nadine was a Godly woman with a quiet spirit and filled with wisdom. She was a faithful missionary.

Mother Nadine was blessed to be employed for many years at Andre Santasties Head Wear Company and Baltimore Sports Wear Company until the company closed.

Mother Nadine was never blessed with children of her own, but she loved her nieces and nephews dearly.

In addition to her parents, Mother Nadine was preceded in death by her husband, one sister, one brother, one niece, and two nephews. All gone but not forgotten.

Mother Nadine leaves to cherish her loving memory: her nephews, Willie James and Angelo Sowers (Washington, DC), Marion Keels, Jr. (Greensboro, NC), Maurice Robinson (Florence, SC), and Sylvester Robinson (Baltimore, MD); nieces, Rhonda Sowers Lindsay (Washington, DC), Barbara Keels Woods (Greensboro, NC), Wanda Robinson and Theresa Shields (Baltimore, MD). She will be deeply missed by so many, in-laws, other relatives, and friends near and far. But don't forget her church family who will miss her humble spirit.
