“ I wish to convey my condolence. I know losing a love one is very hurtful. I lost my mother. You know the Bible speaks of death. 1 Corinthians 15:26 states "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing". John 5:29 states "there's going to be a resurrection of life". Isn't that good news? In fact that is very comforting to know. Revelation 21:4 states "Jehovah will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and dearh will no more. How does that sound to you? I hope I was of some help to you. I hope that it was very comforting. ##imported-begin## C.J. Banks ##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry that you lost your loved one. Death is so very painful, and it is something no family should ever have to go through. God never desired this for people, and he has a wonderful purpose to put an end to all sickness, and all death in the very near future. We can go to the only true source, which is the bible to read why these tragedies are befalling us, the human race, and how Jehovah, through his Son, Jesus Christ is going to fix all the promblems mankind is facing today; including restoring life back to those who have died. I'm sure you'll agree that is wonderful news. Just the thought of seeing our dead loved ones open their eyes again is most wonderful indeed. So Jehovah has given his Son all authority to ressurect the dead. Please read John 5:26-29 in the bible. May your precious memories of Naim be a source of comfort and strength to you in the difficult days ahead. ##imported-begin## R Johnson ##imported-end##

“ Hello to the family and friends of Naim King. Sorry for your great loss. Take comfort in knowing others are thinking of you at this time. Jehovah our creator feels pain when we are sad because of losing people that are dear to us. Jehovah promises a time when we will never again have to lose someone close to us in death. (John 5:28,29) I look forward to that time that the bible tells us is soon to arrive. I hope these promises give you hope for the future. ##imported-begin## O. Crosby ##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry to learn of the death of Naim. I'm sure that this must have been a difficult time for all of you. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrew 9:27 says... It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam. ##imported-begin## JT Nunnally ##imported-end##
