

Namon Nathual Stewart

December 16, 1966 - January 16, 2011

NAMON NATHUAL STEWART, son of the late Joseph McGee and Patricia Stewart, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on December 16, 1966. He departed this life on January 10, 2011.

Namon received his education in the Baltimore Public School System. In June of 2880 he received his diploma from Tests School of Technology in Electronics. He was employed for a short time before his illness prevented him from working, but was motivated to make something from nothing. He became a member of St. John's Christian Community Church in 1990.

Namon was a humorous, loving, charming and a very determined man. Namon made friends no matter where he went. In spite of his circumstances Namon brought the best intentions to any negative situation. He never lost his purpose in life.

He leaves to mourn: his sons, Gerrod and Ryan; two daughters, Crissandra and Taelor; brother, Nathual McGee; sister Alicia Stewart; mother, Patricia Stewart Thomas; devoted friend, Angela Jones; two uncles Irvin Cole and Johnny McGee; four aunts, Evelyn Cole, Bermel Lawson, Naomi Jackson and Corrine Taylor; grandson, Amari; granddaughter, A'akirah; two nephews, Charles and Raykwon; and those who have embraced his love before his departure.

Don't remember Namon for who he was, remember him for who he could've been.
