

Nancy Mae Cartwright

June 20, 1939 - September 27, 2013

NANCY MAE CARTWRIGHT, daughter of the late Clarence Manning and Maecola Johnson, was born on June 20, 1939 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on September 28, 2013 after a lengthy illness.

After her parents' deaths, Nancy was lovingly and tenderly raised by her late grandmother and grandfather, Bennett "Papa" and Delia "Momma" Johnson.

Nancy attended Paul Laurence Dunbar High School until the tenth grade, nonetheless, she remained a devoted "Poet." Upon leaving school, she began a consistent life, devoted to working to take care of her family. After working on several jobs which she enjoyed, she settled down and gave twenty-seven years to Carr-Lowrey Glass Company from which she retired in 1997.

Nancy married James L. Cartwright Sr., and from that union were born Thomas Manning and James Cartwright, both preceding her in death. In 1968, Nancy met William Henry "Billy" Jones, and from this union was born Margaret Cartwright.

Nancy enjoyed good food and shopping. She playfully described her love for food and shopping as both being "delicious." Nancy had an exquisite love for music and artists such as Nina Simone, Sam Cooke and Billie Holliday to name a few.

Nancy leaves to cherish her memory: an older daughter, Jackie Fields of Daytona Beach, Florida and her dutiful and devoted, younger daughter, Margaret Cartwright; son, David Norfleet Jr.; goddaughter, Rosemary Ross; six grandchildren, Clarence Fields, Malcolm Manning Sr., Alteron Cartwright, the late Durell Cartwright, Maecola McClain and Naneika Ross; nine great-grandchildren; brother, Jerome Knox; aunt, Anna McGee; and a host of cousins, nieces and nephews.

“ Our Heavenly Father never purposed death for mankind; this is why death is such a difficult concept for mankind. God actually hates death and calls it an enemy. Very soon He will stop it once and for all. (1Corinthians 15:26; Isaiah 28:5) Mankind will live in peace, happiness, and perfect health (Psalms 37: 9-11, Revelations 21: 3, 4 and Isaiah 33:24) May you draw much comfort in the Creators' wonderful promises, and know that soon we will welcome our loved ones back, wrapping our arms around them once again. I hope that this knowledge will help to ease your deep sorrow.
