

Nancy L. Clark

November 12, 1929 - January 5, 2016

NANCY LOUISE CLARK daughter of the late Basil and Louise Breckenridge, was born on November 11, 1929 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life after a lengthy illness.

She received her education in Baltimore Public School. Nancy converted to the Catholic faith and attended church until medical problems prevented her from going.

She married Hezekiah Clark (deceased) and out of their union they had seven children: five girls, Jacqueline, Nadine (deceased), Gertrude, Carolyn (deceased) and Leslie; two sons, Steven and Rodney (deceased)

Nancy loved family gatherings, cooking, sewing, painting, traveling and swimming. She was always helping her friends, family members and neighbors. She would feed anyone who came to her house. She believed in the feeding open door policy.

She loved having children visit and they was always welcome in her home. She was proud of all her children and grandchildren and always encouraged them to get a good education.

She had numerous friends. She will be sincerely missed. She leaves to cherish her memory: one son: Steven; three daughters: Jacqueline, Gertrude and Leslie; one sister, Jacqueline Campbell; eleven grandchildren, forty-three great-grandchildren and eighteen great-great-grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.
