“ To the family of Nancy Smith Do you believe that God put people in your life for a reason? Do you believe in Blessings? Nancy would have said yes! She became part of the Respiratory Therapy family of Church Home and Hospital for many years. During those years we loved and supported each other though good times and bad. No one would believe the love a group of people would have for each other as co-workers. Nancy was not just a co-worker she was our sister. There is no way to express the lost and sorrow that we felt when Nancy passed. She is the first one to leave the Respiratory family circle and will be missed by us all. We all have loving memories of her which is a blessing, a blessing that will surely heal our hearts in days and years to come. Knowing her the way I did, she would want it no other way. May God give you the peace and comfort that you need during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Anna Parrish##imported-end##

“ To the Family, Please accept my condolences. May you find comfort in the scriptures at John 11:38-44. Here Jesus demonstrated the resurrection hope by raising his friend Lazarus. May this give you the comfort and strength need during this time.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from that wonderful resurrection hope. And may you draw closer to the ones responsible for that loving hope: Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Smith's ! May I send my condolences in your recent circle of life being broken after almost 58 years.From the remarks Ms. Nancy did not do the talk but walk the walk also. It is wonderful to be around some like that who make it their aim to live by the bible as Jesus Christ did, Mt.7:12 and love people like our heavenly father did so much to give his only begotten son, John 3:16. We can look forward to better days.May you all days be filled with all the cherish times spents with Ms. Nancy##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##
