

Nancy Louise Audrey Murray

September 5, 1948 - September 19, 2008

NANCY L. MURRAY, daughter of the late Evander Ervin and Frances Ervin, was born on September 5, 1948, in Darlington, South Carolina. She was unexpectedly called home from labor to reward on Friday, September 19, 2008. As her mother remarried and relocated to Baltimore, Nancy was raised in a Christian household under the strong, steady and spiritual leadership and love of the late James I. Lance, Sr. It was under his guidance, which she received from the age of two, that she found her firm foundation. Nancy was an active member of the Christian Memorial Church under the pastorate of David Walter. She enjoyed singing on the choir and serving as an usher. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated in 1967 from the Eastern High School. In August of 1970, she was blessed with the birth of her firstborn, Orlando F. Ervin. Later in life, she met and married Paul Murray. They married in 1979 and were excited to have her father, Reverend Lance served as the officiant. To this union was born two children, Robert and Natalie. Nancy loved helping others and would go out of her way to do so. In 1992, she found her passion for helping others could be done in a way that she would be paid for what she loved. So, she found employment with HCR Manor Care. She found a home with them and they found a committed employee in her. She stayed on this post until she was called home. Nancy was popular and living. She made friend easily and everywhere she went. She engaged strangers in such a way that they were no longer strangers after just one encounter with her. Nancy leaves to cherish her memory: her mother Frances L. Lance; her children, Orlando Ervin, Robert Murray and Natalie Berry; son-in-law, Chris; three brothers, Nathan, Franklin and Andre; sister-in-law, Benita Lance; eleven grandchildren, Enygma, E Matthews, Elysium, Jasmine, Imani, Michael, Constance, Christopher Jr., Ebony, Jessica and James; two aunts, Lillie Mae Campbell and Jannie Mills; three especially close sister-friends, Barbara Iles, Bessie Reed and Robin Hicks; a host of other family and friends too numerous to mention.

“ *To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people." “ *I wish to extend my sincere condolences for the loss of Mrs. Murray. Isaiah 26:19 lovingly states: "Thy dead live, their bodies will rise again. They that sleep in the earth will awake and shout for joy...The earth will bring those long dead to birth again."- The New English Bible May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful hope found in the Bible.
