“ To the family of Nannie Louise Mason,
I wanted to write to let you know how sorry I was to read of the death of your loved one. Death is such a terrible thing. But the bible holds out hope for us. It tells us at Revelation 21:4 that 'there will be no more sickness death or pain'. It says at Isaiah 25:8 that 'God will swallow up death forever'. So we look forward to all of the promises that God has given us. The bible at Titus 1:2 says God cannot lie. So we can look forward too all of the promises that God has given us. Well if you have any questions or comments please e-mail me.

“ I wish to express my condolences to the family. This time for you is undoubtedly very painful and so may you find comfort from “the God of all comfort” (2 Cor. 1: 3, 4) who can help you to cope with your grief. It can be so hard to face each day without your loved one, but the love and support of family and friends and, of course, our loving Creator, can help to ease the pain and sorrow. Again, please accept my sincere condolences.
