

Nannette C Bernard

August 18, 1964 - October 3, 2024

On August 18, 1964, Nancy and Ernest Bernard were blessed with a beautiful baby daughter's NANNETTE CECELIA BERNARD, Everyone's name has a meaning, and the name Nannette means " God favored me" Nannette is also a French variant of Nancy, Nannette was born in Baltimore, Maryland, the youngest of three children. She completed high school at George W.F. McMechen School for Special Children. On May 26, 2004 she became a participant of The ARC of Baltimore Day Program.

In 2011, Nannette's mother could no longer physical take care of her, so she became a resident of The ARC Residential program

A lover of everything chocolate, Nannette's her father would serve were milkshakes and Ovaltine. Due to his undying love for Nannette, her father would serve her sugary treats despite the protest of her mother. Nannette loved people and would sit beside them when they came to visit the family . Nannette loves to sit on the front porch at her family home. While at the day program, she enjoyed painting sensory mobility activities and playing in sand . Nannette loved the Lord deeply and worshipped her Savior in a miraculous way. She was nonverbal, but her praise to the Lord was beyond phenomenal.

Nannette was preceded in death by her parents, Ernest and Nancy Bernard and her brother Ashley Oscar McVay. She leaves to cherish her memory: her loving and devoted sister, Cheryl Denise Watson, nieces, Linnea Watson,

Ashley McVay, Aaron Watson: and a host of family and neighbors.
