

Nannette Carr

July 11, 1958 - April 3, 2025

Nannette Renee Carr was born on July 11th, 1958, in Baltimore, MD to Nannie B Miller-Carr and the late Harry Lee Carr, both of Mullins, South Carolina. After a lengthy illness, Nannette departed this life on Thursday, April 3rd, 2025.

Nannette received her education in the Baltimore City School System. She then furthered her education at Villa Julie College, receiving her AA degree in Business Administration.

Nannette loved Jehovah God and his son, Jesus Christ. She loved them so much that she got dedicated and baptized on November 5th, 1989. Nannette had a heart of gold. She always wanted to look her very best even when she was feeling bad. If you knew her, you loved her. She loved being one of Jehovah's Witnesses and loved to preach the good news to anyone who would listen. She started auxiliary pioneering and because she wanted to teach everyone she knew about the truth, she decided to become a regular pioneer. She was a regular pioneer for as long as her health would allow her to be. And even during Covid, she enjoyed telephone witnessing with her friends. Although she was nervous, she did not let that stop her.

Nannette cared about everyone, and we would often have to remind her that she had to take care of herself as well. She also made lots of friends over the years who really loved and cared for her. She leaves to mourn, her mother, Nannie B. Carr, daughter, Monique Carr-McKoy, son-in-law, Yvon Mckoy Jr, 3 grandchildren, Myleek Carr, Marquois McKoy, Michaela McKoy, Tenicka Phillips (niece-11 children, one who she was very close to, Nigel Carr), Cindy Williams (niece-5 children, 4 grandchildren), Clayton Duncan (nephew), Claudia Mae Hughes (aunt), Allen "Boo" Hughes (cousin) Anita Marine (longtime family friend), and a host of many other cousins, close friends and family.

“ To my Bonus Family, The Carr's. I will Cherish the memories of my First Best Friend Renee. We shared so many experiences together since I was eight years old we were always together as little girls. Our Friendship grew as we went through the various stages of becoming young adults (smile). I will hold in my heart forever our Sisterhood of Friendship and the Love we had for each other. All of us although sad know that Renee is now FREE for all Pain and in Heaven above Rejoicing. Family hold on and be strong during this time of Grief. God will help us all get through. Love all of You, Nita
